I. Z. Musselman, Senior Vice President Of Adams County National, Dies

I. Z. Musselman, 77, senior vice president of the Adams County National Bank, died in his sleep early this morning at his Orrtanna home.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said death was due to coronary thrombosis and probably occurred about 2 a.m.

Mr. Musselman, who was the last president of the First National Bank of Gettysburg, a prominent fruitgrower who had engaged in the fruit processing business for many years, had been in Gettysburg Wednesday and left the Adams County National Wednesday afternoon apparently in his usual health.

He had retired about 9:30 p.m. CAME HEPE IN 1913

Mr. Musselman was a native of New Holland, Lancaster County, a son of the late Samuel H. and Anna (Zimmerman) Musselman. He came to this county in 1913 with his uncle, John Musselman, and they built the Orrtanna Canning Company plant and operated it as a partnership until the uncle's death in 1931. He engaged in the fruit canning business and fruitgrowing until the Orrtanna Canning Company was sold in 1949 to the Knouse Foods Co-operative. He continued orchards operations and served since 1949 as a director of the Knouse Foods Co-operative.

He succeeded the late Edmund W. Thomas as president of the former First National Bank of Gettysburg. Upon its merger late last year with the Littlestown State Bank, he became the senior vice president of the new institution.

ACTIVE CHURCHMAN

He was a former officer of the Gettysburg Rotary Club, of which he had been a member for 27 years, and was a state director of the American Automobile Association.

For many years he was an active member of the Fairfield Memorial Church.

Surviving are his second wife, the former Margie L. Ranck. Mr. Musselman's first wife, the former Cora Yoder, died in 1935.

Three children survive from the first marriage. They are Howard Y. Musselman, Orrtanna; Mary, now Mrs. Arthur Roth, Orrtanna, and Lois, now Mrs. William B. Wilson, Biglerville R. 1. There are 10 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

CLUB IS TOLD OF VIGNETTES OF CENTENNIAL

"This 100th anniversary celebration is a subject which is very dear to me, and I know it will be a most interesting one to you, because all of us will be involved. There will be trials and tribulations, but when it is over, I think you will all be very proud that we live in Gettysburg and had an event of such national and international importance," Mrs. Roy W. Gifford told members of the Woman's Club of Gettysburg at their meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

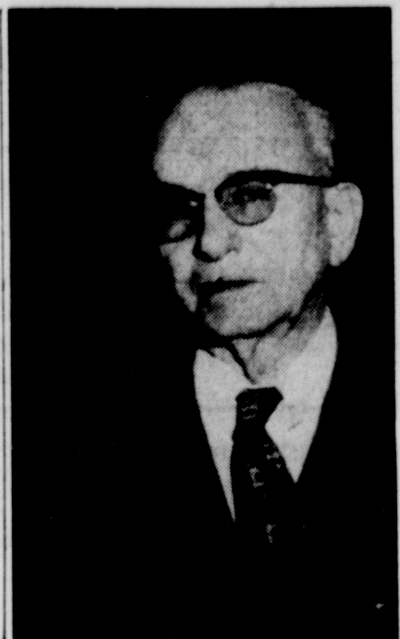

Mrs. Gifford, pageant director for the Adams County Civil War Centennial Committee, described the vignettes which will be presented during the celebration in July. "When I was first asked to become a member of the committee, I thought it might be fun to go along with it for a year and see what it was all about; but I soon discovered it was very easy to become quite enthusiastic about it, and I find I am doing more reading and research on it all the time."

WEAR PERIOD COSTUMES

Mrs. Gifford was dressed in one of the 41 dresses made by the Homemakers Groups under the supervision of Mrs. Helen D. Tunison. She also introduced Mrs. P. J. McGlynn, Mrs. Richard Bow, Mrs. Joseph Heiney and Mrs. Wilmer Roth, who were also dressed in dresses and bonnets of the Civil War period. Mrs. McGlynn's costume included lace stockings which had been made for a wedding.

FIREMEN SEEK SHED TO BURN IN FIRE SCHOOL

Gettysburg firemen are looking for an old building they can burn down, according to a report presented at Wednesday evening's meeting of the firemen in the engine house on E. Middle St.

Fire Chief Robert Hartman asked the firemen to inquire among friends if any residing near town may have an old shed "or any type of building," the firemen may use in connection with the current fire school being held weekly at the engine house here.

Hartman said that if such a building can be found it will be used over a two-week period. Plans of the instructor for the fire school being attended by Gettysburg firemen and firemen from several other county fire companies is to start different types of fires in the structure and let students extinguish the fires as part of their instruction.

The fire chief observed that the proposal provides an opportunity for getting rid of an unwanted structure. If one is offered the firemen will obtain the necessary permits for destruction by fire.

May 6 was set as the date for start of the annual solicitation for funds and the announcement led to a general discussion of how to determine the boundaries for solicitation. Several firemen noted that last year Gettysburg, seeking donations over the area north of Gettysburg, found it was infringing on the area of the newly-formed Heidelsburg Fire Company.

Francis I. Linn, of the 100th anniversary committee, reported a meeting of the general anniversary committee, Fire Police Captain Thomas Adams and "all (Continued On Page 3)

PLAN EGG HUNT

An Easter egg hunt will be held by the Friendship Circle Class of the Orrtanna Methodist Church on the church grounds Saturday morning at 9 o'clock for children up to 12 years of age. Each child is to bring his own basket.

REGULAR P. O. HOURS

Normal postal service and regular post office hours will be observed Saturday and Monday, Charles W. Pentz, postmaster, said today. He said that he has received numerous inquiries about the "holiday" weekend and emphasized that Good Friday and Easter Monday are not included in the list of post office holidays.

Way Cleared To Create Unified Nuclear Command

PARIS (AP)—The Western allies have cleared the way for creation next month of a unified nuclear command with multinational air and U.S. sea strike forces.

Qualified sources said U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk has won allied approval for a North Atlantic Treaty Organization nuclear force in which France will participate on a limited basis. The plan could take concrete shape when the NATO foreign ministers meet in Ottawa May 22-24.

Rusk outlined the plan to the NATO Permanent Council at a meeting here Wednesday.

The force initially will consist of the American Polaris submarines now operating in the Mediterranean and planes of the United States, Britain, France, West Germany, Italy, Canada, Belgium

Adams Teachers To Dine Apr. 24

Next Wednesday is the deadline for reservations for the annual spring banquet of the Adams County branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, which will be held Wednesday, April 24, at 6:30 p.m. in the Littlestown High School cafeteria.

John R. Korver of the Berks County High School faculty, the county PSEA president, will preside. The annual election of officers is on the agenda for the evening.

Tickets are available through local teacher representatives. The reservations are to be made with Assistant County Superintendent of Schools George B. Inskip. A roast beef dinner will be served. The price is $1.65.

2,000 SCOUTS READY TO HELP IN CENTENNIAL

Upward of 2,000 Boy Scouts will be available for crowd control or other duties in connection with the Battle Anniversary Centennial, the commissioners of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District were told Wednesday evening at a meeting in the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

During a discussion of the duties anticipated for the Scouts, reports indicated that the other four districts of the York-Adams Boy Scout Council are anxious to assist in the program.

District Commissioner Crosby N. Hartzell introduced Elson C. Grim, for Arendtsville, and Paul T. Harvey for Biglerville, new commissioners.

Joseph Sunbury, assistant district commissioner, reported on plans for a Round Table April 30 at the West St. branch bank. Stuart Long will be in charge of the Cub Scout Round Table, Sunbury of the Boy Scouts and Dr. Richard Greenholt of the Explorer Round Table.

Commissioners were asked to urge all unit leaders and their assistants and the den mothers to attend the April 30 sessions, when anniversary plans will be discussed.

Plans for the Explorer Cotton Ball April 20 at St. Francis Xavier School were outlined as were plans for the Camporee May 24, 25, 26. A special meeting will be held April 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the branch bank for Scoutmasters and advisors and two key boy leaders from each unit to plan the program for the camporee.

Registrations for the canoe trip to Canada August 12 to 24 have closed, but additional leaders are needed to accompany the youths. Leaders who may wish to help on the trip are asked to contact Stanley C. Rogers.

MOUNT AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS FOR NEXT YEAR

The Student Council of Mount Saint Mary's College, Emmitsburg, has announced the awarding of three $100 scholarships for the coming academic year. Recipients of the awards which are based on academic achievement, extra-curricular activities, and financial need are: George R. Gelles, Johnstown, Thomas F. Ross, Ashland, and Chester F. Gelles, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Laco, is a junior economics major. He has been a class officer, a member of the soccer (Continued On Page 9)

EXPECT 1,000 CASUALTIES A DAY IN JULY 1-4 PERIOD HERE

Medical authorities anticipate a possibility of "1,000 casualties a day" during the battle anniversary period here in July, the staff of the Warner Hospital was told at its meeting Wednesday afternoon at the hospital.

Dr. William Hall, Chambersburg, of the Civil Air Patrol, which will have charge of emergency medical facilities during the anniversary period, said that the estimate of "1,000 casualties" includes "everything from blisters on the foot to heart attacks."

Under plans outlined at Wednesday's meeting, the crowds anticipated for the anniversary activities will have prompt medical care.

TENT HOSPITALS

The Civilian Air Patrol will have 14 first aid stations on the battlefield and in the town at strategic spots. Stretcher teams will be along the route of the parade during that period and the aid stations and stretcher teams will be in radio communication with the hospital and each other by use of walkie-talkie radio equipment.

Four 200-bed hospitals will be set up on the battlefield for first aid treatment. Dr. Hall said that any patient for whom more than three hours treatment will be needed will be moved to the Warner Hospital where local physicians will be in charge.

Plans outlined at the meeting Wednesday call for the physical (Continued On Page 9)

COMMUNION AT ZION LUTHERAN 9:15, SUNDAY

The sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated at 9:15 a.m. Easter morning and the three choirs will sing at the festival service at 10:30 a.m. in Zion Lutheran Church, Fairfield.

The Easter lily cross will again adorn the chancel. The 12-foot cross holds 55 potted lily plants, all of which have been placed by the members of Zion Church. The cross remains intact until 5 p.m. Easter Sunday.

The Sunday Church School will hold classes for grades Nursery through Sixth and a special nursery will take care of infants during both services.

The Youth and Cherub Choirs, under the direction of Mrs. Otto Kroeger, will sing the anthem "Glory to the King." This combined choral selection will be accompanied by Thomas Kittinger.

The Senior Choir under the direction of Miss Helen McClellan, will sing "King of Kings" accompanied by the church organist, Mrs. Calvin F. Bream. Carl Franklin, field worker from Gettysburg Seminary, will be liturgist and the Rev. Otto Kroeger, pastor of the church, will preach the Easter sermon.

The festival service will be preceded by a 15-minute trumpet prelude from the church tower with Thomas Kittinger and Gary Lee Spence playing Easter selections. Thomas Bream, Ann Scott, Linda Spence and Elaine Reindollar will also precede the festival service with a clarinet quartet playing "Welcome Happy Morning" and "Lead On O King Eternal." The public is invited to these special services.

Another Traffic Light Knocked Off

Traffic lights at the intersection of Baltimore and Middle Sts. are having an unusually difficult time with trucks.

Monday afternoon a tractor-trailer "decapitated" the traffic light on the northwest corner of the intersection.

Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 Orlyn Hixon, 165 N. Stratton St., drove a Gettysburg Transfer truck around the southeast corner of the intersection. The truck struck the traffic light there, knocking the light portion off the pole. Swam Electric Co. of Hanover employees, who had been here Tuesday to repair the light on the northwest corner and return it to its standard, expect to be held today to put back the light on the southeast corner.

District Veterans Meet Here April 27

The Gettysburg Barracks 2974 of the Veterans of World War I will be host to an April 27 meeting of the Seventh District at the Legion home here, it was announced following a meeting of the local unit here Monday evening.

World War I veterans from Chester, Lancaster, Lebanon, York, Cumberland, Adams and Fulton Counties are expected to attend the 1 p.m. meeting here to which state and national officers have been invited.

A report to the local unit from the national headquarters reported that the World War I veterans now are the third largest veterans' organization in the nation.

Cmdr. J. M. Kline presided at Monday's meeting at which it was decided to keep the charter of the county organization open until July 1. This unit was formed in July of last year.

Funeral Awaits Shipment Of Body

Funeral arrangements for Lt. Michael Wasilifsky, Emmitsburg, who was killed in a Navy plane crash in Alabama Tuesday, are incomplete today pending shipment of the body from Pensacola, Fla., where the flyer was based with the Marine Corps.

Dr. A. M. Wasilifsky, father of the Lt. St. Mary's graduate, said that the funeral may be held Wednesday from the college chapel if the body arrives early next week. He expects that arrangements will be completed Friday.

ADAMS BUDGET IS APPROVED AT $724,899

The Adams County commissioners Wednesday completed the 1963 budget calling for expenditures of $724,899 during the coming year. The budget will remain on display 20 days at the courthouse before final adoption in May.

The amount compares to the $798,863.08 actually spent during 1962 and contemplates, among other things, the reduction of the present debt on the county home by $50,000. The county, rather than sell bonds in constructing the new half million dollar home borrowed such money as needed. At the present $75,000 is still owing on the new county home. In 1964 the debt should all be paid, according to the commissioners' estimates.

Income during 1963 is expected to be $728,799, which will leave the county with a balance of $3,900 at the end of the year. $553,727 FROM TAXES

Estimated income includes a balance of $17,282 as of the beginning of this year; taxes totaling $553,727; licenses, $800; rent and filing fees, $2,010; state aid, $28,000; departmental earnings, $102,200; nonrevenue receipts, $25,000.

Expenditures anticipated during the year are listed under the following headings: Commissioners' office expenses, salaries of commissioners, clerks, etc., $29,300; solicitor, $4,250; courthouse (repair, maintenance, heat, light fuel, etc.), $39,060; elections, $20,390; assessments, $45,500 (an increase over last year because of the state demand for aerial survey, mapper, etc., which will cost about $12,000 for the year); weights and measures, $2,050; treasurer's department, $11,900; tax collectors, $16,100; auditors, $2,800; register and recorder's department, $8,985; sheriff's office, $15,595.

Coroner's department, $1,600; probatory's department, $4,580; clerk of courts department, $18,800; district attorney's department, $8,343; law library, $2,600; courts, $25,788; justices of the (Continued On Page 2)

Young GOP Will Present Candidates

The public is invited to a "Meet Your Republican Candidates" program in the courthouse next Tuesday at 7:30 under the auspices of the Adams County Young Republican Club.

Miss Alice Biggins, program chairman for the club, said each county GOP candidate has been asked to state his views in connection with the office he seeks. A member of the club will describe briefly each office. Another member will introduce each candidate with a short biographical sketch. All but one of the candidates are expected to be present.

Following the program refreshments will be served. Candidates for local offices will be introduced at the meeting.

John Olson, membership chairman, has reported a steady growth in the club's roll. Others who wish to join are encouraged to do so at any meeting of the club. Membership now makes a person eligible to participate in the summer activities.

Egypt, Syria, Iraq Agree To Form New Arab Republic; Nasser Probable President

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
CAIRO (AP) — The rulers of Egypt, Syria and Iraq have agreed to unite their 38 million people in a new United Arab Republic with Cairo as the capital, but they are keeping most of the details secret.

After four days of unity negotiations, Egyptian Premier Aly Sabry announced Wednesday night that the new U.A.R. will have a single flag, a central military command and one nationality for all.

Sabry did not say who will head the unified state, but there seemed little doubt that Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser will hold the reins.

The three original states will be known as the Egyptian region, Syrian region and Iraqi region. Sabry's announcement indicated that the new U.A.R. will have a strong central government, controlling foreign affairs, defense, economic planning, currency, for-

Nuclear Thresher Lost In 8,400 Feet Of Ocean Depths Off Boston Coast

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy fought against the longest odds, multiplied by deep water and foul weather, and hoped for a miracle of the sea today to save 129 men of the nuclear submarine Thresher which dived Wednesday and failed to come up.

If they are lost it would be the Navy's worst submarine disaster in peacetime and perhaps in history. Even as hope flickered more ships with the latest search and rescue equipment were concentrated at the spot in the Atlantic where the Thresher cocked its bow planes and dived at 9:17 a.m. Wednesday for a deep dive test about 220 miles off Boston.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adm.

George W. Anderson, chief of Naval operations, announced this afternoon that "very reluctantly I have come to the conclusion that the Thresher has indeed been lost."

Anderson spoke at a news conference more than 25 hours after the nuclear-powered submarine carrying 129 officers, enlisted men and civilians was lost to contact some 220 miles east of Cape Cod in 8,400 feet of water.

Anderson said two main factors influenced his judgment:

The salvage vessel recovery followed an oil slick detected Wednesday and found bits of cork used in internal construction of submarines.

"OVER 400"

Just how deep the Thresher was designed to go is a military secret, but the Navy doesn't even talk in terms approaching 8,400 feet. All it will say of the Thresher's dive capacity is "over 400." Nevertheless the search fleet swelled to seven ships and submarines during the night, and seven more sped toward the area. The force included another nuclear submarine, the Seawolf.

The position given by the attack submarine Thresher before she vanished from sight — 41.4 degrees north, 64.57 degrees west—is just north of the Great Circle course used by transatlantic shipping. It is about 170 miles south-south-east of Cape Sable at the foot of Nova Scotia, 150 miles east of the George's Banks and about 80 miles from Brown's Bank, major fishing areas for American, Canadian and Soviet trawlers. The weather in the area of the banks generally is unpleasant, with fog, wind and at times heavy cresting seas.

The searchers were using radar and sonar equipment, as well as relying on visual observation of the waters in case the Thresher might have surfaced.

On Easter Sunday a sunrise service will be held by the congregation on Oak Ridge at 6:30 in the morning.

At 11 o'clock Sunday morning a special service on the theme "Victory Over the Tomb" will be held in the church. Holy Baptism and Holy Communion will be administered. The soloist, Mary Alice Nutter, will sing "What Wondrous Love Is This," accompanied by Mrs. Amanda Myers.

EASTER PLAY

The Church School will present a play entitled "Easter Light" Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church. The scenes portraying Easter will include "The First Easter in the Early Church," "Upon the Nedy," "In the Present Day," "The Homeland" and "The Whole Wide World."

TO CLOSE FRIDAY

Stores, banks, business places and county offices will be closed Friday in observance of Good Friday.

Stores plan to close from 12 noon to 3 Friday afternoon as will clubs in the community. The courthouse and other county offices and the banks will be closed all day.

SECRET 11 HOURS

Announcement of the probable loss of the ship was withheld for 11 hours in the waning hope that there had been only a communications failure.

Word was relayed to President Kennedy, however, some three hours before the public announcement.

A naval court of inquiry was ordered to convene at New London, Conn., to try to determine what happened.

At the Pentagon Adm. George W. Anderson, chief of naval operations, said the chance that the Thresher failed to resume contact after the deep dive test.

It was the Skylark that made the first report of trouble when the Thresher failed to resume contact after the deep dive test.

ONE FAINT HOPE
But the Navy kept one flicker of hope alive for its missing comrades aboard the fleet's fastest and deepest diving combat-type submarine. Spokesmen said there (Continued On Page 6)

FAMILIES WAIT, PRAY FOR LIVES OF SUB'S CREW

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
"Waiting and praying."
The three words sum up the hopes and fears of wives, parents and other kin of those aboard the nuclear submarine Thresher, reported missing Wednesday.
"I'm living in hope," said William Keller of Green Bay, Wis., father of crewman Ronald D. Keller, 22. The father said his son wrote two weeks ago that he expected to be promoted to petty officer first class next Tuesday.
"We're just waiting and praying now," said Mrs. Aaron S. Ginter of Jacksonville, Fla., whose son, signalman Aaron Jade Ginter, was aboard the Thresher. Waiting at Portsmouth, N.H., was Ginter's wife, Doris Mae.
"We are hoping and praying, we are not panicking," said Ralph E. Grafton of De Witt, N.Y., a suburb of Syracuse, father of Lt. (j.g.) John G. Grafton, 25.
The lieutenant is single. He has two teen-aged sisters and a brother.

SON ON BOARD
Anna Kantz of Ann Arbor, Mich., is a widow whose husband died in 1955 and her eight-year-old daughter was killed by a car in 1945. She was too broken up to talk about her son, Thomas C. Kantz, 27.

Marvin T. Helmsius, 23, of Trout Creek, Mich., just last week wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno B. Helmsius, that he was considering making a career in the Navy. He has served about three years and seven months.

Waiting hopefully in Spokane, Wash., were Mr. and Mrs. Everett B. Wiggins, parents of Lewis Wiggins, 29, Wiggins, a 12-year Navy veteran, has a wife and three children in Exeter, N.H.
And in New London, Conn., a submarine commander said:
"She's hoping for the best. All of us are hoping. All of us are praying."

It was Lt. Cmdr. Shepherd Jenks speaking for the wife of Lt. Cmdr. John W. Harvey, in command of the Thresher.

FAMILY FRIEND
Jenks is commander of the nuclear Skipjack and a close friend of the Harveys.

Harvey's mother, Mrs. Manning J. Harvey of Philadelphia, said: "I have great faith in him, great faith in my son's ability."
"Both my sons, both my sons," grieved Mrs. Neil D. Shafer of Groton, Conn. She was referring to Benjamin, 35, and John, 33, both electricians aboard the Thresher.
Mrs. George Burnett of Hobbs, N.M., said her son, Clyde E. Davison, 19, was on the Thresher less than 10 days after a two-week leave in Hobbs. She said young Davison, in the Navy for two years, had not been to sea before. "I didn't like the idea of sub duty, but he did," Mrs. Burnett said of her son.

COLLEGE NAMES NEW TRUSTEE

Atty. Robert C. Fluhrer, York, has been elected to the board of trustees of Gettysburg College.
Fluhrer is a 1912 graduate of the college where he played both basketball and baseball and was active in athletics at York High School prior to that. He received his law degree in 1915 from Yale University where he began officiating basketball games.
He was referee for the first official Pennsylvania State interscholastic basketball championship in 1920 which pitted Harrisburg Tech against Bellevue High.
Fluhrer has been active in civic affairs, particularly in the work of the Salvation Army.
He is a director of the First National Bank of York.

Big Buttons Win Free Coffee Today

This is "Buck-a-Cup" coffee day in Adams County and 35 cooperating restaurants were selling big "BAC DAY" buttons for $1 each which entitles the wearer to free coffee at any of the 35 eating places. The $1 for the button goes to the Adams County Society for Crippled Children and Adults which will conclude its annual Easter Seal sale Sunday.
One thousand of the big buttons had been distributed to the 35 restaurants. A dinner dance invitation will be the prize for the waitress who sells the most buttons. The prize is offered by the Restaurant Association which is cooperating in the project.

Lenten Thought For Today

The Lord's Supper has become the Christian's sacred sacrament. Pray God that this "Holy Communion" might not become only an annual affair. This sacred trust has been the key to Christian's living and loyalty to Christ.

What do the words, "Take and eat, this is My body" and "Take and drink, this is the blood of the New Testament" mean to you?
A generation ago a group of Armenian Christians were to be executed by some soldiers. If they would deny their Saviour, they would deny their Saviour. The leader of the group ask permission to speak to his people. Request granted, he stooped down, picked up a handful of dirt from which the bread of life grows. Repeating the Communion words, he offered a prayer of thanksgiving. Slowly turning around he replied, "Sirs, we are now ready to die for our beloved Jesus."
Christians, does the Lord's supper mean this much for you?

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:
SPACE STUDY: Burning gold dust will flash across the heavens Monday night as American scientists study ways of dispersing radiation from future nuclear-powered space devices.
The gold dust—about $150 worth—and small amounts of barium, strontium and silver are nonradioactive stand-ins for the nuclear fuel that may power spaceships.
The metals will be packed in a dozen rods attached around the surface of a dummy nuclear reactor and will ride with it from Wallops Island, Va., on an 800-mile suborbital flight up to 100 miles high over the Atlantic.
The reactor is designed to disintegrate on re-entry into the earth's atmosphere. The four metals will be released at different times, appearing as tiny twinkling stars that should be visible to ship-borne watchers some 125 miles southwest of Bermuda.
HARMONY: Monday will usher in National Harmony Week, by proclamation of President Kennedy.
Barber shop quartet singing is uniquely American and provides pleasure for millions, the President said Wednesday as he issued the proclamation in response to Congress' request.
SILVER: With the price of silver skyrocketing, the House has passed legislation that would remove silver backing from the dollar bill, thereby freeing 1.3 billion ounces of the metal to be made into coins.
The measure passed 251-122 Wednesday and was sent to the Senate.
The legislation would allow the Federal Reserve System to issue $1 notes, which the Treasury would use gradually to replace the present silver certificates.

Countian Charged With Topsy Driving

Luther D. March, 54, York Springs R. 1, was arrested Wednesday evening at 7:10 o'clock and placed in the county jail by borough police on charges of driving while under the influence, hit and run and reckless driving. All of the charges were placed before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.
Borough Policeman Raymond Menges said March allegedly was driving on Carlisle St. When his car struck a parked auto owned by John W. Kuhns, Lutherville, Md., near the railroad, then turned into Railroad St. and parked in the lot behind the bus station. When the police car cruised by in response to a call that a parked car had been hit, March, according to police, drove out of the parking lot and was apprehended near N. Washington St.
After interrogation and examination by physicians, March was brought before the justice. Damage was estimated at $100 to each auto.

DIEFENBAKER PRESSURED BY MINOR PARTIES

OTTAWA (AP) — Leaders of Canada's two minor parties put pressure on Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker on Wednesday night to resign promptly as a result of Monday's election setback.

Social Credit leader Robert Thompson said he feels Diefenbaker does not have the moral right to remain in office until Parliament meets late next month.

"He has lost the confidence of his party and of the Canadian people," Thompson said.

URGED TO RESIGN

The leader of the New Democratic party, T. C. Douglas, said, "If I were in his position I would submit my resignation. That is the logical thing to do."

Flying to Ottawa from his Saskatchewan home, Diefenbaker, 67, said "eventualities" would determine the course to be followed. He did not indicate what these might be, but he has said that he would make no statement until he knows the result of armed services votes which will be tabulated over the weekend.

One political writer close to Diefenbaker reported the prime minister has decided to step down and open the way for Liberal leader Lester B. Pearson to form a government.

VANIER STRICKEN

In the midst of the uncertainty, it was announced that Canada's governor general, George P. Vanier, suffered a slight heart attack Tuesday and has canceled official engagements for the next six weeks.

There was no immediate word what bearing this would have on the political situation. The governor general is the representative of Queen Elizabeth II in Canada and thus a central figure in the controversial transition of power following the election.

Diefenbaker planned to discuss the question of Social Credit and New Democratic support at a Cabinet meeting Thursday. But the statements of the two small party leaders heightened the likelihood that he will turn over the government reins to Pearson.

VFW Will "Lite Bikes" Of Children

The VFW post will conduct a "Lite-A-Bike" program April 27 in front of the Keefeauver School when members will place reflectorized tape on children's bicycles.

Walter O. Powell, post adjutant and chairman of the program, said the VFW hopes every child in town will bring his bicycle to the school at 1 p.m. that day to have tape placed on the handle bars, the front fork and rear fenders. Commander Robert R. Swisher, senior vice commander Charles R. Moser, junior vice commander Norman Myers and past commander J. Edward Kerrigan are members of his committee.

The program is being held in connection with National VFW Bicycle Safety Week, April 27 to May 5.

Borough police will explain to the children the various laws pertaining to bicycle operation and answer any questions that may be asked.

The VFW is also seeking to secure a film from the American Automobile Association to be shown at the VFW home during the period to help stress to the children the need for safety in bicycle operation.

URGES MORE INTEREST IN GOVERNMENT

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," Henry Semke, York Springs, told members of the Upper Adams study group concerned with community affairs Tuesday evening at a meeting in the Bendersville National Bank social rooms. Semke was assigned to study local government in Huntington Twp.

He said that "three things are necessary if residents of any community want to take an active interest in local government." He listed interest, availability of time and a knowledge of the scope of local government.

"Most people have no idea of what local officials are supposed to do," Semke said. He said that taxpayers who are interested in local affairs should first acquaint themselves with the responsibilities of their elected officials and then "decide if they are doing the job properly."

QUALIFICATIONS

In free discussions following Semke's report, the group expressed concern about the qualifications of county candidates for elective office and asked "how can the policies, views and ideas of candidates be made known so that voters will know what principles the candidates support?" Semke said that further work will be made of the query and a report will be made at the meeting Tuesday evening.

The Upper Adams group is the first in the county to meet regularly to discuss community affairs. The group was formed last winter under the auspices of Pennsylvania State University and the Ford Foundation and met for 10 weeks to discuss the community generally. They have continued to meet weekly in informal discussions. Dr. V. L. Group is the course leader.

ORRTANNA—The Woman's Society of World Service of the Mt. Carmel EUB Church met in the church hall Monday evening for the monthly meeting with 12 members and one guest present.

Officers for the new year were installed by the pastor, Rev. Alfred Gotwalt.

They were as follows: President, Mrs. Dale Wetzel; vice president, Mrs. Robert Shindeldecker; secretary, Mrs. Wendell Wetzel; treasurer, Mrs. Clyde Metz; secretary of spiritual life, Mrs. Gotwalt; secretary of missionary education, Mrs. John Baker; secretary of spiritual education for children, Mrs. Paul Wetzel; secretary of local church activities, Mrs. Oliver Spence, and secretary of Christian social relations, Mrs. Charles Shindeldecker. Two hymns were used for the installation.

Mrs. Dale Wetzel, the president, opened the meeting with prayer. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. Mrs. Paul Wetzel was appointed to purchase flower stands for the church sanctuary.

The next meeting will be held May 13 when family night will be observed at 6 p.m. All church families are invited. Mrs. J. E. Spence will be leader for the worship program at that meeting.

Mrs. Wendell Wetzel was leader for the program "This Is Your Life" which followed a hymn, with these women taking part: Mrs. Church, Mrs. Clyde Metz; voice of Okinawa, Mrs. Gotwalt; voice of Taiwan, Mrs. Dale Wetzel; evangelism, Mrs. George Haines; Christian education, Mrs. J. E. Spence; Korean church, Mrs. Claire Rebert.

The meeting closed with the benediction by the pastor, Rev. Gotwalt. A social hour followed and refreshments were served with Mrs. Anna Chapman as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Herring and children, Eddie and Hazel, Orrtanna R. D., and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dick and children, Ricky and Debbie, Emmitsburg, motored to Virginia and West Virginia on Sunday where they toured historic Harper's Ferry and the Antietam Battlefield. They returned home by way of Hagerstown where they lunched at City Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lochbaum entertained on Sunday Mrs. Lochbaum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul K. Martin, Waynesboro R. D., and an aunt of Mrs. Lochbaum, Mrs. Bessie Brechbill, Chambersburg R. D.

Three BHS Pupils In Regional Band

Three members of the Biglerville High School Band participated in the Region III State Band Festival held at Central Dauphin High School, Harrisburg.

They were Samuel Bucher, first trumpet; Carolyn K. Stary, first clarinet and Harold Thomas, third clarinet.

The Biglerville youths were among a group of 249 students from 87 schools chosen for the regional band. The Biglerville band director, Richard Thompson, accompanied the students to Central Dauphin High School.

Ensign Ronald L. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Brown, Fairfield, is shown having his naval aviation observer wings pinned on by Captain F. K. Upham, commanding officer. The ceremony took place recently at the Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Tex., when Brown completed the Navy's five-month bombardier-navigator training program. A graduate of the University of Maryland, College Park, Md., Brown entered the Navy in May 1962.

EDUCATORS AT CONFERENCE

Eighteen Adams County educators went to Lebanon Valley College at Annville Tuesday to attend a regional curriculum conference arranged by the state Department of Public Instruction.

Welcomed by the college president, Dr. Frederic K. Miller, several hundred schoolmen heard talks by state DPI officials on curriculum, technical education, a planning program for the gifted, economics in the high schools, teaching us of television, elementary and junior high school science and then attended sectional meetings on the same topics.

The county schoolmen in attendance included: County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson and his assistant, George B. Inskip; Dr. Russell Rosenberg and John Held of the Education Department at Gettysburg College; Amos D. Meyers, Bermdian Springs supervising principal; J. Arthur Wolfe, elementary principal for Conewago Twp.; Harold R. Blair, supervising principals of the Fairfield schools; Robert N. Reindollar, elementary principal at Fairfield; Hobart E. Benchoff, Franklin Twp. principal.

Dairy Princesses, Twin Calves Sought

Dairy princesses and identical twin female dairy calves are being sought, Assistant County Agent Duane G. Duncan has announced.

The state is looking for girls between the ages of 17 and 24 as contestants for the annual Dairy Princess contest in which Sally Brown of Adams County was runner up last year. Applications blanks are obtainable by writing to Dairy Princess, 303 Telegraph Building, Harrisburg. The deadline is April 24.

U.S. Department of Agriculture scientists are searching for the identical twin calves. According to Duncan the department is seeking the identical twin female dairy calves for use in management and mastitis studies at the Agricultural Research Center at Beltsville. Calves can be either purebred or high grade animals of the five major dairy breeds and can be any age up to 14 months. Such twins are rare, and because they develop from a single cell react in much the same manner — thus their value in tests. County farmers who have identical twin heifer calves are asked to write to Dr. R. D. Plozman, Dairy Cattle Research Branch, Animal Husbandry Research Division, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Beltsville, Md. The U.S. will pay for the calves.

FIREMEN SEEK

electricians" will be held Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock on the Recreation Field.

President Robert Neary appointed fire chiefs, Robert Hartman, Charles J. Kerrigan and Robert Hefner, and Harold Hockensmith, Ray Breighner, Martin Crabbill, Raymond Menges, Francis I. Linn, Robert Heyser, Gerald White, Glenn Raffensperger and Fern Ohler, members of a "new truck committee," to continue studies of the possibility of purchasing a ladder truck to replace the present one.

Robert Heyser, reporting on the meeting of the Adams County Volunteer Firemen's Association April 1, said plans were made for a committee to meet with the new county superintendent of highways to arrange for continuation of the system whereby the state Highways Department notifies the Quick Call Center of planned detours for the information of firemen responding to alarms. He also announced that because of the centennial activities, the July meeting of the Adams County firemen has been charged to June 24.

Approval was given for the purchase of an oxygen dispensing system to be placed in the rescue truck.

Receipts of $3,879.70 from Gettysburg and $144.23 from Strasburg Twp. for the firemen's relief fund were reported by Treasurer William DeHaas. Both amounts were received from the state from a tax on foreign fire insurance.

Thomas Gibbons and Roy Hartman were dropped from the company membership rolls at their own request, reducing the membership to 121.

The company, on motion of E. Glenn Raffensperger, voted to have the Hale pump on the No. 4 fire engine overhauled by the company that manufactured it. The 12-year-old pump needs to be repacked and generally "gone over" the company was told.

BURY MRS. MARSHALL

TWENTY YEARS AGO
Ask Some Other Fellow: The state Bureau of Vital Statistics' duty is to keep a record of all births, deaths, marriages, etc., in the state but . . . it can't keep track of its own employees.
The late Andrew W. Ramer was registrar of vital statistics for Gettysburg and four surrounding townships for many years. On July 23, 1939, Mr. Ramer passed away.
This morning a special delivery letter addressed to the late Mr. Ramer was received in Gettysburg directing him to furnish all information on a baby born January 12, 1942. The letter states it is the second request and a reply by return mail is requested.
Mr. Ramer has been off the Bureau's payroll for almost four years and his death is recorded in the Bureau's records as of that date.

Nephew Of Dr. Crist Killed In Africa: Sergeant Jack Crist, Plainfield, New Jersey, has been killed in action in the African campaign, according to word received this afternoon by his uncle, Dr. C. G. Crist, Chambersburg street.
Sergeant Crist was a son of the late Dr. Chalmers L. Crist, a graduate of Gettysburg college, who died in Plainfield as a result of injuries received during the First World War. Dr. Chalmers Crist was a major in the first division of the 28th infantry, the same outfit to which Sergeant Jack Crist was attached.
Sergeant Crist was a frequent visitor to Gettysburg and had a number of friends here. His latest visit was during the maneuvers in the south last summer. He visited with Dr. Crist here while his outfit was passing through town.

Carload Of Hay Flops In Town: Center square had a decidedly rural aspect from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Wednesday as five tons of hay were in the process of being loaded in the southwest section of the circle.
The scene opened when Earl Klugh, Dillsburg R. D., drove his truck loaded with five tons of hay, around the square on the way to near Two Taverns.

As the truck swung around the square a rope broke and the hay was deposited in the parking space beside Dougherty and Hartley's store. Klugh then learned that while five tons of hay could be placed on his truck when he carefully loaded it Wednesday afternoon at his farm — it would not fit when being reloaded in Gettysburg.

A "good samaritan" named Harry Luckenbaugh, Gettysburg R. D., came along with a truck and, knowing Klugh, decided to help his friend. The remainder of the hay was loaded in Luckenbaugh's truck and the two trucks left for Two Taverns accompanied by much advice from passersby.

Dr. Baxter Joins Hopkins Faculty: Dr. John Baxter, chemistry professor at Gettysburg college for the last year, will leave Gettysburg at the close of the current term to teach chemistry for the Army and civilian students programs at Johns Hopkins university. He will begin his new duties about May 1.

Doctor Baxter, who received the degree of doctor of philosophy from Johns Hopkins before coming here last year, taught physical chemistry here, succeeding Dr. C. Allen Sloat who was called into the armed forces near the end of the college year in 1942.

Naval Officer Is Called To Duty: Dr. F. B. Bryson, center square dentist, recently commissioned a lieutenant in the United States Naval Reserve, has been ordered to report for active duty at Bainbridge Naval Hospital, Port Deposit, Maryland, on April 26. OBJECTIVES
Big plans stimulate the imagination. See finished things in your mind. Strive for nothing secondary. Associate with those who inspire.
We must all have objectives if we would achieve anything that is worth while. Scattered forces, however, have no vital drive to them. The satisfactory life must be controlled by one increasing purpose, toward which all other efforts should trend.
We cannot very well gain an objective without centering every effort we own on its attainment. Each step in growth furnishes light in increasing measure, so that each forward step brings us nearer to the objective in mind.
There is no limit to the storage capacity of the brain. Its cells of knowledge increase as the demand for their use increases. There is the world, and all time, from which to draw.
Take the careers of such figures in history as Augustus, Caesar, Alexander, or Napoleon. Their objectives were gain in power and personal glory. No spiritual sparks are created in men's hearts because of what they did. But how about the careers of Jesus, Socrates, Montaigne, Aurelius or Abraham Lincoln? How each life has inspired the lives of millions because of the written words and acts of usefulness of each!
How futile is an effort unless it spreads and becomes substance for some permanent gain in the world.
A man's daily thinking, reading, observation, and association are what suggest the caliber of his make-up. His aims and objectives stand out, like spear points accompanying him everywhere he goes. You know what manner of man he is the moment you come in contact with him. Words often mislead or deceive, but character is something imbedded. The roots do not show, but that which is above does.
Again I would say: Make no small plans. Strive for nothing secondary!

Just Folks
LIFE GOES ON
Life goes on. No end appears to its laughter and its tears, Wise men die, but just as wise Men tomorrow will arise, All that is will still go on, After we who toil are gone.
Life unaltered keeps its pace; There's a man for every place. Every day sees death and birth, Marriage, melody and mirth. While the great sun lights the sky Men will toil as you and I.
Rain and sunshine, joy and care, All who come to earth will share. What we've known of pain and woe Those who follow us shall know; And in gardens much like ours Still will bloom the self-same flowers.
Men will wonder, just as we, What beyond this earth can be. Never will the mind of man Solve the Great Creator's plan. Puzzle o'er it as they will, Life will stay a mystery still.

WOMEN HEAR MISS OGASA
Miss Hisako Ogasa, Christian exchange student from Japan, was the guest speaker at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Centenary Methodist Church at the church. Miss Ogasa, garbed in her native costume, gave a talk on her native country. She explained the difficulties which the Christian missionaries meet in Japan while trying to teach the Japanese Christianity.
Mrs. Ruth Smith, president, conducted the devotional service. The following birthdays of the society were noted: Mrs. Margaret Howell, Mrs. Carrie Byers, Mrs. Charlotte Byers, Mrs. Edna Waltz and Mrs. Mary Miller. The meeting closed with the WSCS in union. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ann Musselman, Mrs. Isa Wulferth and Mrs. Betty Warehime, who comprise the hostess committee.
It was announced that a mother and daughter banquet will be held at St. James United Church of Christ in the first week of May. The time and day will be announced at a later date. Election of officers will be held at the May 14 meeting of the WSCS at 7:30 p.m. at the church. Mrs. Christine Jones will be the leader.

AID BLOOD PROGRAM
The Mason and Dixon Memorial Post 6654, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its auxiliary are sponsoring the blood typing program, where those desiring to donate blood may do so under the VFW and auxiliary program. Approximately 35 pints of blood have been donated by volunteers since September for the Hanover and Gettysburg Hospitals. Any person that knows his blood type and would like to have his name on the waiting list is asked to contact Mrs. Bernard Kuhns, Littlestown R. 1, who is president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the VFW. It was announced that the auxiliary now has hospital equipment available for community use and anyone having the need for them should contact Mrs. Bernard Kuhns.

Washington Awaits New Moves In Steel Situation
By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington's ears were cocked for more steel price boosts today, and eyes were glued on the White House for any signal of another battle to hold the price line.
Hurried, worried, late-hour conferences gave ample evidence of President Kennedy's concern, but produced no word that he was ready to roll up the government guns that flattened last year's announced price hike in 72 hours.
Some senators heard that Wheeling Steel Corp.'s price increase, which triggered the new uproar, was linked to the possibility of a round of wage increases for the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers of America.
HEAR OF HIGHER PAY
An influential Democratic legislator, who would not be quoted by name, said he understood that the continuing, informal talks in the industry's "Human Relations Committee" were pointing to an upward pay adjustment.
The USW, he said he was advised, might in return yield some ground on working rules and conditions in contract talks which can be reopened after April 30 upon demand of USW President David J. McDonald.
The off-the-record comment of a few other Democratic Congress members suggested they would not oppose some reasonable wage increase for the steelworkers, who accepted only modest "fringe" improvements last year instead of higher pay rates.
SERIES OF MEETINGS
Several Republican senators said the government should keep its hands off the situation.
Kennedy went into a series of meetings Wednesday with Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, and a parade of others.
Black limousines belonging to high officials were parked at the White House until late evening. The only report to leak was that, up to late afternoon, "no conclusions were reached."
JUST YEAR AGO
As in the bitter struggle of exactly one year ago, the country's balance of payments deficit is at the heart of the administration's opposition to a steel price boost which would spread sooner or later to autos and thousands of other products.
Officials pointed out that steel's loss of export markets to lower-priced foreign producers has been a major contributor to the payments problem.
STEEL'S POSITION
The trade balance in steel and steel mill products shifted from a $500 million surplus in the mid 1950s to no surplus in 1961, while U.S. steel prices climbed 16 per cent relative to the major foreign competitors.
Steelmen took the position that without more profit they cannot modernize; without modernization they cannot cut costs; and without lower costs they cannot even compete with some foreign steels in the U.S. market.
No other steel company had indicated, up to Wednesday night, whether it would or would not follow Wheeling's lead.

Littlestown Joint Board OK's $483,256 Budget; Will Refinance Bond Issue

The Joint Board of the Littlestown Joint School System adopted a temporary budget of $483,256, at the monthly meeting held on Tuesday evening at the high school building. The budget is now open for inspection at the high school office. Final approval and adoption of the budget will be made at the May 14 meeting of the board. The new budget is only 3.3 per cent above the $467,736 budget for the current year.

After a short discussion, the school directors adopted a resolution recommending to the Littlestown Joint Authority that the bond issue for the new high school be refinanced, which when completed will result in a savings to the districts of lease rental and interest in the amount of $107,000 for each of the two years by which the pay period on the issue is reduced. The bond issue under the new management will be completely paid in 1966 instead of 1968.

President W. E. Mackley conducted the session, which opened with prayer by Charles W. Weikert. The treasurer's report for March showed receipts of $44,792.20 and expenditures of $37,475.22. Bills and salaries were approved for payment. Charles E. Ritter was appointed as board member to the legislative committee of the local PSEA branch.

TO BUY NEW BUS

The board granted approval for the Adams County TB Society to conduct the Mantoux testing program in the jointure schools. Kenneth K. Kroh, for the transportation committee, recommended to the board the advertising of bids for a new school bus, also for the recapping of eight tires.

In the administrative and accumulative report presented by Paul E. King, supervising principal, it was shown the schools were in session 137 days up to and including March 29. Mr. King recommended reconsideration of the school calendar, especially the Christmas vacation and appointment of a board member to the legislative committee.

The high school activities were reported by Frank E. Basehoar, principal.

ARRANGE FOR CAR

A contract agreement has been made with Village Chevrolet for use of a car for driver education, since Wheatley Ford can no longer supply it. Registration for the 1963-64 school term is now complete. There is a decided increase in commercial, language, especially German, and shop registrations.

The statistical report of the cafeteria showed that it was in operation 21 days last month; number of meals served daily, 22,288, and average served daily, 1,060. U.D.A. commodities received during the month included four bags of flour, 22 cases of applesauce, 21 cases of corn, six bags of corn meal and six cases of pork.

ELEMENTARY REPORT

John H. Riley, principal of the Rolling Acres Elementary School, reported that the second marking period for Grades One and Two ended March 7 and report cards were distributed March 20. The third marking period for Grades Three, Four, Five and Six ended March 28. A steady progress was shown by a majority of the students and for those who have shown little or no progress, proper notation on their reports which were distributed to the students on April 9. Miss Charlotte Rogers, reading consultant, attended a reading workshop at Camp Hill High School on April 6. A detailed report is being prepared by Miss Rogers and will be given to all elementary school teachers. Since the last report at least one more beginner is known for next fall making a total of 12 additional children to be registered for the 1963-64 term. The tentative date for the next day of preschool registration has been set for August 9.

NURSE REPORTS

Three buses of the jointure had major repairs in the last month, according to the transportation report also given by Mr. Riley. Most of the roads are in fair condition and proper authorities have been notified where repairs are needed. Dale Hamm has successfully passed the school bus driver's test, is licensed and is assisting as a substitute driver.

The school nurse, Mrs. Brenda B. Walker, reported that during the month 15 home calls were made, 180 first aid treatments in school with seven students requiring further treatment in the physician's office and four needing X-rays at the hospital. All boys participating in baseball and track were given physical examinations by Dr. L. L. Potter. There has been some absence in the primary grades due to minor communicable diseases. The Future Nurses Club participated in a Career Day at Rosewood State Hospital, Owings Mills, on March 19. Visual tests for preschool children were conducted by the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind at Rolling Acres School on March 15.

The custodians reported to the directors that the lawn area, including the athletic field have been fertilized and rough areas rolled. The weed sprayer has been assembled and is ready for use. Mowing will begin shortly. Damage done by wind to doors has been repaired by the janitors. A transformer controlling lights in the main corridor is being repaired. The area adjoining the H. Dean Stover property on Park Ave. will be seeded and graded as soon as convenient. Borough officials will be contacted as to the possibility of securing materials for patching drive areas broken up over the winter. General conditions of all buildings are fair.

John D. Bream, the school's athletic director, reported the obstacle course has been run at least once by all the boys in the school. It has received much enthusiasm from the students.

A girls' physical education extramural volleyball program has been set up with Gettysburg and New Oxford.

Directors present on Tuesday were President Mackley, Wade H. Brown, Charles E. Rabenstein, Bernard Hess, Richard Neiderer, Clyde Miller, Glenn C. Bowers, Stanley Wolf, Red Maddox, Clair Arter, Kenneth Kroh, Mrs. Rhoda Gitt, Richard A. Maitland, Roy Snyder, Karl P. Bankert, James Reichart, Fred W. Hartlaub, Charles E. Ritter, Charles W. Weikert, George S. Worley and David S. Kammerer Jr.; Mr. King, supervising principal, and Henry E. Waltman, secretary.

ATTEMPT TO KILL GENERAL FAILS BY INCH

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—An unseen rifleman fired through a back window and missed controversial ex-Gen. Edwin A. Walker by a scant inch in his home Wednesday night.

Police said a slight movement by Walker, at a desk working on his income tax report, apparently saved him.

"Somebody had a perfect bead on him," city detective Ira Van Cleave said. "Whoever it was certainly wanted to kill him."

The bullet, from a 30.06 rifle, was fired from an alley behind the Walker home in a fashionable north Dallas district, police reported. It went through wood framing the glass window.

WAS RELIEVED

"There are plenty of people on the other side," he replied. "You don't have to go overseas to earn a Purple Heart. I've been saying the front was right here at home."

Walker, a Texas native, has made his home here since resigning from the Army in 1961. He took that step after being relieved of his command in Germany, where he was accused of trying to teach extreme right political views to his troops.

During a riot over admission of a Negro student at the University of Mississippi last fall, Walker was arrested and charged with seditious conspiracy and insurrection. A federal grand jury failed to indict him and the charges were dropped.

FBI Arrests Man For Burglaries

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Benjamin Franklin Ehlinger Jr., Cressona, Pa., has been arrested here by the FBI on a federal warrant charging unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for burglary.

The FBI said Ehlinger, 27, was using the name George Andrew Christ when arrested and was wanted for burglaries in March, 1962, of service stations at Orwigsburg and St. Clair, Pa.

The FBI said he had served time in Schuylkill County prison at Pottsville, Pa., and the Eastern State Penitentiary at Graterford, Pa.

Nuclear

was the possibility the Thresher, which vanished at 9:17 a.m. Wednesday, had surfaced in stormy seas and was unable to radio.

On this outside chance the Navy threw ships and planes into a continuing search. But Adm. George W. Anderson, chief of naval operations, said Wednesday night that although he was still hopeful, he was "not optimistic."

MAY BE CRUSHED

If the submarine had plummeted to 8,400 feet—the depth of the Atlantic at the Thresher's last reported position—the submarine would have been crushed by the massive weight of water.

Anderson said there would be no chance for the crew to survive at that depth or to make a rescue. There was no indication of suspicious ships or submarines in the area when the submarine disappeared, the Navy said.

The sleek Thresher was last heard from as it plunged in a steep test dive which the Pentagon said was to have been "in excess of 400 feet."

LOST CONTACT

It was then that the Thresher's escort vessel, the submarine rescue ship Skylark, lost contact with it and sent out the alarm that triggered the sea hunt.

After hours of fruitless search for the attack submarine, which does not carry Polaris missiles, the Navy announced bleakly that the Thresher was "overdue and presumed missing."

Some two hours after the first announcement, the gray-haired Anderson stepped in front of the bright television lights of a Pentagon news conference and said, "for those of us brought up in the traditions of the sea, one of the saddest occasions is when one of our ships is lost, which appears to be the case today."

NO EXPLOSION

Anderson said there was "absolutely no chance of nuclear explosion in the submarine, nor is there any danger of radioactive contamination in the shipping lanes."

But he wouldn't hazard a guess as to what may have happened. That, he said, would be up to a court of inquiry instructed to meet this morning at New London, Conn.

Soon the Pentagon's duplicating machines were turning out the names of the missing men. For hours the Navy had held up the announcement the Thresher was missing so as not to worry relatives in case it was a false alarm.

MAY BE MYSTERY

When the word came it swept quickly through Portsmouth, N.H., the seaport town where the Thresher was launched in 1960 and from which it left Tuesday for sea trials after an overhaul. She had been due back this morning.

Navy officers and civilians crowded into the Portsmouth Navy Yard administration building. A barracks was set aside to provide information for relatives of the crew.

What happened to the Thresher may remain forever a mystery of the sea.

Foreign Minister Is Shot In Head

ALGIERS (AP)—Foreign Minister Mohammed Khemisti was gravely wounded in the head today by a pistol bullet fired by a young Moslem. The attacker was seized by police.

Khemisti, 32, and newly married, was leaving the national Assembly building with his wife, who is a Parliament member, when the single shot rang out.

He staggered and clutched his head. He was rushed to the Algiers Mustapha Hospital where his condition was described as serious.

Khemisti had attended the first round of a debate on a proposal to clamp a 10 per cent capital levy on all financial assets in Algeria.

CAN'T GIVE CHICKS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—A county humane society official has warned that it is against the law to sell or give away baby chicks, ducks or rabbits for pets in Alabama.

Executive Director George W. Looney, said Wednesday he wanted to call attention to the law because of the approaching Easter season.

REALISTIC CUT IN SPENDING IS CALLED FOR BY GOODLING

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. George A. Goodling, R-Pa., says a realistic cut in unnecessary federal spending, "followed by realistic cuts in corporate and personal taxes is the long-term solution to our unemployment problems."

Goodling commented Wednesday after voting against restoration of a $450 million supplemental appropriation bill for the accelerated public works program.

Goodling, answering a wire from Pennsylvania Democratic Chairman Otis Morse, who had urged all Pennsylvanians to vote for the restoration said, "we want a long-range policy which overrides short-term considerations and sectional interests only."

FUNDS RESTORED
The House voted to restore the $450 million supplemental funds. Pennsylvania House Republicans Goodling, Paul B. Dague, John C. Kunkel, William H. Milliken and Herman T. Schneebeli voted against it. All other Pennsylvanians voted for it, except Reps. Robert J. Corbett, R., and Francis E. Walter, D., who were not present, but recorded as in favor of it.

Goodling said the administration is "clamoring for tax relief." He said sometime this is necessary, but said cutbacks in spending should accompany tax cutbacks.

Morse's telegram to the House members called the measure "anti-recession," and said it was needed to fight unemployment in Pennsylvania.

CLAIM CHALLENGED
Goodling took issue with Morse's telegram, point by point, and especially challenged the Democrat's statement that the funds are "vital" needed to help create new jobs which in turn will bolster business activity and aid consumer buying power.

Goodling replied, "Name one instance where that has been true other than on a very limited and temporary basis."

"You state further 'denial' of these funds will halt pending projects scheduled to get under way in many sections of Pennsylvania."

"Let me remind you that is exactly what the bill did when passed one year ago. You needn't go very far from Harrisburg to find where plans had been completed for civic improvements, only to be delayed when it was learned there may be a chance of Santa putting something into their stockings."

He added, "Industry, not government, makes a prosperous country."

Brothers Served Aboard Lost Sub

GROTON, Conn. (AP) — They were brothers, shipmates and neighbors. Each had four children.

They were aboard the nuclear submarine Thresher, believed lost in the Atlantic Wednesday.

"Both my sons, both my sons," grieved Mrs. Neil D. Shafer today. It was about all she could say.

Benjamin, 35, and John, 33, were electricians on the Thresher. They and their families lived at a trailer park here, near the home of their parents.

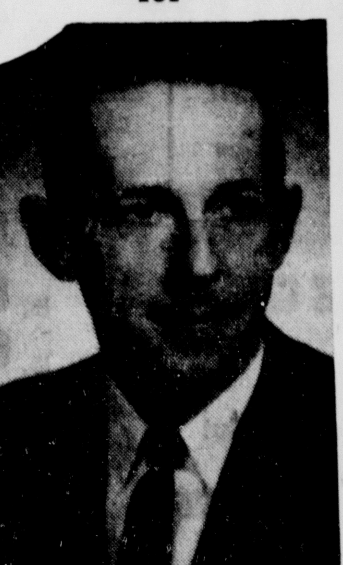

TALK MORE IN SOUTH

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Southerners seem to talk more than other people, the president of the Southern Bell Telephone Co. says.

The official, Ben S. Gilmer, said Wednesday that six phone calls per day is the average in the South compared with five for the nation as a whole.

Friday Service In Taneytown

TANEYTOWN — Grace United Church of Christ will be the host church for the Taneytown community Good Friday service which will be held from 12:30 to 3 p.m. with the Reverends Robert V. Johnson, William M. Hendricks, Howard W. Miller, Paul E. Rhinehart, Warren Eshbach and William F. Wiley officiating.

The period from 12:30 to 1 p.m. will be a prelude of music and silent meditation in preparation for the service.

The Easter sunrise service will begin at 6 a.m. The carillon bells will be played 15 minutes before the service. Rev. Howard W. Miller, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, will deliver the sermon on "By the Early Dawn's Light." The responsive reading will be led by Rev. Paul E. Rhinehart, pastor of Messiah Evangelical United Brethren Church; the scripture will be read by Rev. William M. Hendricks, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church; the prayer will be offered by Rev. Robert V. Johnson, pastor of Emmanuel (Baptist) United Church of Christ, and Rev. William F. Wiley, the host pastor, will preside. A brass quartet from the Taneytown High School will play Easter selections. The anthem, "King of Kings," by Simper will be sung.

DISNEY HAS GOOD SYSTEM ON HIS SHOWS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Viewers anxiously awaiting the second installment of Sunday night's two-part "When Knighthood Was in Flower" on NBC's Walt Disney Show include its star, Glynis Johns.

The blonde English actress played the role eight years ago in England for Disney—as a feature film for theaters.

Walt Disney runs one of the smartest operations in the motion picture-television area. He has a huge backlog of cartoons and full-length features, originally made for theatre exhibition, into which he dips for material for his own television shows.

WORE HEAVY ROBES

He also takes his television shows and turns them into full-length movies for use in theaters. Miss Johns says that, even though she made the film about Henry VIII and his sister so long ago, it was an unforgettable experience.

"We wore authentic historical costumes and mine were so heavy that every night my ankles were swollen and my shoulders hurt. I had two women whose job was to help me to carry the weight of my robes. The worst was when I had to do some of those old court dances—in gold encrusted robes."

LIKED CBS SHOW

CBS' special, "In The Mouth of The Wolf," Wednesday night was a gay and funny study of an opera-mad community: Parma, Italy. It unfolded like a suspense yarn. Would the Italian audience whistle the American soprano off the stage? Obviously not, because Margherita Roberti (Margaret Jean Roberts) wouldn't have been around from the beginning of the program with her jolly narration.

The backstage story of putting together Verdi's "Luisa Miller" for the fearsome Parma audience provided an unusual hour of television. There were times when an English-speaking barkeep gave strong evidence he was reading the overly-cute summary of the opera's complicated plot. Often, too, Parma's "average opera-lovers," hammed it up out-

FINDS WIFE, 2 CHILDREN DEAD IN HOME

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—The bodies of the two children, strangled by a silk stocking, lay in the bedroom. The mother's body was hanging from a clothesline in the basement.

That, police say, was the tragic scene that Ernest Katzwinkel Jr. encountered Wednesday when he entered his ranch style home in nearby Millcreek Twp.

Police Chief Joe Marshall of Millcreek Twp. said Katzwinkel's 43-year-old wife, Mary Clara, had strangled her children, Hans Richards, 6, and Gretchen Susan, 16 months, then took her own life in the cellar.

PHONED INTENTIONS

Police quoted the 39-year-old gously for CBS' cameras.

Even so, it was an amusing trifle and a nice change from the usual sober-sided documentary.

Recommended tonight: Telephone Hour, NBC, 10-11 (Eastern Standard Time)—Final show of the season with Harry Belafonte, Birgit Nilsson and Andres Segovia.

Katzwinkel as saying his wife had told him of her intentions when she phoned him at the Bucyrus-Erie Co., where he is a welding foreman.

He told officers he hurried home, only to find his wife and two children dead. A third child, Ernest William, 9, was in school.

Police said they were unable to determine what motivated Mrs. Katzwinkel. Officers said the couple had no marital problems and described her as a perfect mother and wife.

SHOW FOLK WED

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Chuck Connors and actress Kamala Devi Amesur were married Wednesday night, then left for a short honeymoon in Palm Springs. Connors, 41, is the star of television's "Rifleman" show. It was his second marriage, the first for Miss Amesur, 29.

HELPED BUY YACHT FOR UNION CHIEF

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Witnesses at the fraud trial of six Teamsters testified Wednesday that a former public relations man for Local 107 paid $17,000 from his own pocket to buy a yacht for the local's secretary-treasurer, Raymond Cohen.

Both Cohen and the public relations man, Ben Lapensohn, are among defendants.

They and four other members or former members of the local are charged with looting the local treasury of more than $100,000.

Gerald W. Gretzinger, a representative of the Broad Street Trust Co., said Lapensohn drew the $17,000 from a joint account he held with his wife in 1955 and converted it to a bank treasurer's check.

A later witness, Glen R. Keagle of Miami Beach, Fla., said the check was used to pay for a yacht on which Cohen already had deposited $1,000.

The trial, before Judge David Ullman and a jury of nine men and three women, is in its third week.

Easter Most Colorful Of All Greek Holidays

By PHILIP DOPOULOS

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Easter is the most colorful of Greek holidays. And the Lenten season that precedes it opens new vistas for gourmets.

This year Greeks will celebrate their Orthodox Easter April 14, the same Sunday as the rest of the Christian world. Normally they lag by several weeks.

Through the 48 days of Lent there is fasting.

For the monks of Mt. Athos and other monasteries that dot this Mediterranean country it means a diet of hardly anything but boiled dandelions and wild mountain grass.

OTHER DELIGHTS

For others there are gastronomic delights.

A typical menu for fasting Greeks for Clean Monday, as the first day of Lent is called, consists of dishes fully approved by the 12-member Holy Synod, ruling body of the Greek Orthodox Church.

The dishes are usually cold and can easily be packed into a picnic basket for the family sortie into the countryside. They must consist of plants or bloodless creatures. This excludes fish as well as meat, poultry and eggs.

A Frenchman, hearing this while visiting Greece at the beginning of Lent, frowned and prepared himself for the worst.

His Greek host served him vine leaves stuffed with rice, black and green olives, caviar, boiled crab and lobster and oysters and clams. This was followed by octopus a la marsala, baby squid fried in olive oil, hearts of lettuce and spring onions and fish roe paste to be eaten with crisp brown unleavened bread named lagana.

HALVAH AND ALMONDS

Chilled white wine was served, and to top the meal, there was desert consisting of halvah with almonds, raisins and shalshounia—crescent-shaped concoctions of mashed almonds and sugar sprinkled with rosewater and powdered with sugar icing.

The Frenchman waved away fruit salad, and sighed: "Oui, a pity that Lent lasts only 48 days."

After gorging themselves on the opening of Lent, the Greeks generally eat no meat on Wednesdays and Fridays and the religious fast seriously during the Holy Week. Most Greeks eat nothing on Good Friday.

Family Food Facts

By HAROLD E. NEIGH

Ham, turkey, and eggs will be the main attractions at area retail food stores this week, says Harold Neigh, consumer marketing specialist at Penn State.

You'll find Easter hams costing a few cents less than a year ago. However, prices will vary between stores and in stores because of the different kinds, cuts and styles of ham.

Hams are either "cook-before-eating" or "fully-cooked" and the meat industry is trying to get all packers to label hams as such. Cook-before-eating hams are regular smoked hams that have been heated to an internal temperature of at least 137 degrees F. They are safe to eat, but additional cooking is necessary to bring out the proper flavor and tenderness. Fully-cooked and ready-to-eat hams have been cured and heated so they may be served cold without further cooking or they may be reheated and served hot. You'll pay a few cents more for a fully-cooked ham than a regular smoked ham because of additional processing costs, but you can expect less cooking shrinkage.

HAMS AVAILABLE

Although whole hams are available, hams are usually sold by the half or portion—the butt half and the shank half. The butt half comes from higher on the leg than the shank half; it yields a larger proportion of lean meat than does the shank half and usually sells for a higher price per pound.

If you prefer turkey, it shouldn't be too hard to find one to fill your needs. Prices generally start at 35 cents a pound for the heaviest size and go up to 49 cents a

TEXAN QUILTS UNDER FIRE ON BIG OIL DEAL

AUSTIN, Tex. (A) — Texas Railroad Commissioner William J. Murray Jr., object of a high-level state investigation as to whether he let a West Texas oil deal conflict with his state job, resigned Wednesday.

Murray, a member of the state's oil regulatory body for 16 years, confirmed Monday a copyright story, published by the Dallas Morning News, that he and three other men reaped large profits from an oil development venture in 1958-60.

Murray said he made a "nice profit" of "several thousand dollars." He said published stories saying he made $285,000 gross profit did not take into consideration acquisition and development costs.

TO PUSH PROBE

Gov. John B. Connally, who announced the resignation, promised that the investigation of Murray's interest in the oil deal would continue "to determine what, if any, legal action may be undertaken."

The three-man railroad commission regulates the oil and gas industry of Texas.

In a prepared statement he read to newsmen, Murray said that "because of my concern for the petroleum industry and the principle of state conservation regulation," he was resigning.

He said, "I remain firmly convinced that there has been no improper action and no effort at concealment since all actions were placed in my name on public record."

TRIPLE CROWN

RAINELL, W. Va. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Everett Osborne of Rainell may well hold some kind of record as grandparents. On a Tuesday a grandson, George S. Turner Jr., was born in Richmond, Va., and on the next day a granddaughter, Kimberly Elizabeth Cox, was also born in Richmond. On the following Thursday, Anne Osborne was born at Rainell, making them grandparents three times in three days.

These prices are about the same as at Thanksgiving when supplies were the heaviest for the year.

You should find some real bargains in eggs as many retailers offer them at special prices this week.

To round out your holiday menu there will be low prices on many items for those vegetable and salad dishes. Bargain prices will be noted on sweet potatoes, onions, carrots, and radishes. Many stores will carry feature prices on corn, asparagus, lettuce, tomatoes, cucumbers, and peppers.

Today In Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton plans to meet with the third and last group of Republican County chairmen today to discuss such items as taxes, programs and patronage.

All three luncheon sessions, held in the governor's reception room, were arranged and financed by the Republican State Committee.

Scranton met with 21 county chairmen Wednesday and answered complaints concerning what some Republicans consider a delay in filling state jobs with party workers.

The administration explained to the group, as with the one on Monday, that it promised during the campaign to eliminate unnecessary jobs. The cutback in payroll, the fact that about one-third of the remaining jobs are covered by civil service and the survey of job classifications all have made the task of putting Republicans to work in place of Democrats tedious, the group was told.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dr. Gaylord P. Harnwell, president of the University of Pennsylvania, is head of a newly formed committee to organize Gov. Scranton's proposed council of science and technology. Scranton made the appointment Wednesday.

Serving with Harnwell will be Gwilym A. Price, chairman of the board of Westinghouse Electric Corp.; Dr. Eric A. Walker, president of Pennsylvania State

Say Eight Million U.S. Smokers Want To Stop

By ALTON BLAKESLEE

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — Smokers with chronic bronchitis often feel they have an "itch" in their lungs, "and the only way to scratch it is with another cigarette."

This "scratching" isn't the answer and they should stop smoking, a Swedish physician said Wednesday in describing a 10-day clinic course designed to help

University; Dr. Edward Litchfield, chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh, and Dr. John C. Warner, president, Carnegie Institute of Technology.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The General State Authority is giving further study to bids on a project at Mansfield State College since they exceeded the allocation by $33,040.

The GSA said Wednesday, McDermott Brothers of Williamsport R. D. 3 submitted an unofficial low bid of $312,540 on a project to remove overhead electrical distribution systems at the college and replace them with underground lines.

The allocation was $279,500. In other action, the GSA opened bids on renovation of the New Castle Armory. The project calls for rehabilitation of the electrical system and installation of metal doors, new stairways, a fire escape, new walls and ceilings.

Marino Electric Co., New Castle, submitted the unofficial low bid of $23,300 on the electrical work and Preston and Williams, New Castle R. 7, submitted an unofficial low bid of $8,270 for general construction.

smokers break their habit.

In the last seven years, 6,000 Swedes have attended the clinics, and 88 per cent initially were weaned away from tobacco entirely, said Dr. Borje Ejrup of the Karolinska Institute in Stockholm. Additionally, 11 per cent managed to turn to "pleasure smoking" of only a few cigarettes daily, or vastly reduced smoking, he said.

MANY SLIP BACK

But within a year, 50 per cent were found to be backsliding. So now the treatment includes periodic visits to the clinic to maintain smoke-free living, Dr. Ejrup said.

The smoking withdrawal clinics were started to help smokers who develop health symptoms such as chronic cough, heart symptoms, nervousness, mouth and stomach problems, or who are just not feeling well, Dr. Ejrup told science writers at an American Cancer Society seminar.

About 10 per cent of smokers want to stop for health reasons, from fear of cancer, to save money, or because they feel enslaved by a habit, the physician said. If Swedish statistics apply to the United States, this means eight million Americans want to stop.

ROSS SHEELY RESIGNS FROM SCHOOL POST

H. Ross Sheely, Trevorton, Pa., a native of Gettysburg, has resigned as supervising principal of Zerbe Township School District, ending almost 38 years of service as a teacher, athletic coach, principal and supervisor of the Trevorton school system. He was stricken seriously ill January 14 and is in the Reading Institute of Rehabilitation, Reading.

Sheely, 61, was elected to the Trevorton High School faculty in 1925 as a teacher and athletic coach. He leaves the system as one of the most outstanding instructors in the school's history and also with the distinction of having compiled one of the best athletic records in that school.

He graduated from Gettysburg High School in 1920 and from Gettysburg College in 1924 with a bachelor's degree in political science and economics, and later with a master's degree in education from the same college. In 1929 he married Miss Helen McCall, Johnstown, and she too entered the Trevorton High School faculty in 1925 as a home economics teacher.

Widely known as an athlete in his young days, he was an outstanding football quarterback in high school, but his most noted ability in the field of sports was as a left-handed hurler.

COUNSELLED YOUTHS

The Trevorton newspaper said of him upon his retirement "Mr. Sheely was instrumental over many years in having a large number of Trevorton High School graduates enter into institutions of higher learning. In and out of school he was a counsellor for young people and visits by them to his home for advice were as numerous as they were to his office in school."

Sheely has been in four institutions since being stricken in January and is a patient now at the rehabilitation center following an operation at the West Reading Hospital. He expects to be returned to the Geisinger Medical Center, Danville, in the near future.

Mrs. Charles Bower, 606 Fairview Ave., is a sister of Sheely.

He is a dean's list honor student, a member of the varsity cross country and track teams, a member of the Business Society, the Tri-State Club, and the men's Sanctuary Society. Skipper Of Downed Sub Was Dedicated Seaman

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The skipper of the missing nuclear submarine Thresher was described by family and friends today as serious, studious, and dedicated to the sea.

And while an armada of ships and planes scoured the Atlantic Ocean where the Thresher disappeared Wednesday, the parents of Lt. Cmdr. John Wesley Harvey clung to the hope he would return safely.

"I have great faith in him, great faith in my son's ability," said the officer's mother, Mrs. Manning J. Harvey, Wednesday night.

HEARD ON NEWS

She and her husband, a retired television salesman, learned of the Thresher's disappearance while watching a newscast in their small, stucco home in North Philadelphia.

"I have faith in God and I have faith that everything will be all right," Mrs. Harvey said, even as reports grew darker.

Harvey, 35, grew up in Philadelphia, attending high school and the University of Pennsylvania before entering the U.S. Naval Academy in 1946.

Harvey married a childhood sweetheart, the former Irene Nagorski, after graduation from the academy. They have two sons, 11 and 8.

Harvey joined the nuclear submarine service in 1953 when the craft were still in the prototype stage. Earlier he served aboard an orthodox sub and an aircraft carrier.

STUDIED REACTOR

Selected for nuclear service, he was assigned two years of instruction including 18 months study of the Nautilus reactor.

He joined the Nautilus in 1955 and was aboard on its first and second missions under the polar ice cap. He served as first chief engineer and engineering officer of the submarine Tullabee, and as executive officer of the nuclear sub Sea Dragon. He took command of the Thresher last Jan. 18, the last time his mother saw him.

Meanwhile, in Allentown, Pa., the parents of a crewman aboard the submarine, said their son volunteered for submarine duty because he did not like the inactivicians associated with the hospital to arrange a schedule by which they will be at the hospital on eight-hour shifts throughout the period, thus there will always be several doctors at the hospital day and night.

NO "ELECTIVES"

Because of the expected influx of patients expected from the anniversary activities, the hospital will not take "elective" patients during the period.

"Elective patients," it was explained, are those who need hospitalization but their illness is of a type where the work can be done "a week later or a week before," and thus they will be cared for at some time other than during the anniversary week.

ONE TO THREE DEATHS

Dr. Harrison Harbach reported on plans of the armed forces and medical teams to use helicopters to transport ill and injured to the hospital. If approval can be given by the military, helicopters will be stationed at various sites. Ambulances enroute to the hospital will go to those points to have their patients transported by helicopter to the hospital, thus freeing the ambulances of the problem of traveling through the traffic congestion in and about the town. The major problem at the moment concerning the proposed helicopter lift program is the question of liability when military vehicles transport civilians.

The physicians were also told that, if prior statistics concerning crowds at activities such as the anniversary can be taken as a guide, it can be expected that from one to three sudden deaths will occur during the anniversary period.

IS ONLY CHILD

Anthony Rushzski, 23, Allentown, is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander T. Rushzski.

Anthony, a chief petty officer second class, has a friend who is a Thresher crew member, Glenn Laird Heiser, 24, of Tipton, Pa., a machinist's mate.

Heiser visited last week with his parents, Robert and Gertrude, both 47.

Heiser's father said his son told him the submarine was undergoing repairs, and he didn't expect to go to sea for at least two weeks.

Another Pennsylvanian on the crew is Thomas B. Johnson, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Johnson of Montoursville, an electronics technician first class. His father, 60, retired from the Navy as a chief warrant boatswain in 1946, after 30-years' service. Thomas told his parents when he visited them last weekend that he expected repairs to be completed soon with a practice dive to follow.

WILL RESUME BUDGET WORK NEXT TUESDAY

HARRISBURG (AP)—The joint House and Senate Appropriations Committees have completed their first week of hearings on Gov. Scranton's $1.12 billion budget after receiving a bundle of testimony from 12 state agencies.

The three-day session ended Wednesday with afternoon testimony from the Military Affairs Department and the state Civil Service Commission.

The budget study is to resume Tuesday with nine agencies scheduled for appearances during another three days of testimony.

Wednesday, Adjutant Gen. Thomas R. White found himself faced with a perennial and emotional issue among the legislators—the Soldiers and Sailors Home at Erie for indigent and disabled veterans.

UNDER FIRE QUICKLY

During the course of his presentation on the department's $4.3 million request for fiscal year 1963-64, White said there are "233 guests living in the home at present."

Approximately $480,000 was requested for the home, $100,000 of which White said would be used for continued renovation of the physical plant.

No sooner had he finished than he found himself under the gun of Rep. Robert S. Ogilvie, R-Dauphin, who serves as chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee.

HIGHLY CRITICAL

Ogilvie, after being highly critical of the home and its physical condition, asked flatly: "Is there a need for that institution?" He said:

"It's the loudest place I've been in. I wouldn't put a dog in that institution."

White acknowledged "this place could be improved," but added:

"This is a place that, if the commonwealth is not proud of it, it certainly should not be ashamed of it."

HAD ADVANCE NOTICE

He said firmly that he had been "through a substantial part" of the home on several occasions and found the guests received adequate medical care and that their rooms were clean and well

People In The News

Juan Jose Arevalo, ex-president of Guatemala who is sought by the new military government there is reported living in Mexico City three blocks from the home of new Guatemala strongman Gen. Enrique Peralta Azurdia.

Emily Taft Douglas, wife of Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., will be guest of honor at a Chicago meeting to kick off a $200,000 fund-raising drive to restore the art colony opened by her late father, sculptor Lorado Taft.

Taft, who died in 1936, started an art center 57 years ago in a barn on University of Chicago property.

kept.

"I have eaten the same food in the same dining room as the guests," White continued, "and I thought it was tasty."

Under further questioning, he replied that his visits were previously announced, the last one a week in advance.

House Appropriations Committee Chairman Blaine Hocker, R-Dauphin, joined Ogilvie in questioning the wisdom of continuing to provide state funds for the operation of the home.

"This is a sore spot," he said. "I don't know whether we're doing the right thing or not. We must come up with an answer."

He said he would attempt to reactivate joint legislative committee to look into the situation.

Elmer D. Graper, chairman of the state Civil Service Commission, preceded White on the stand.

JOB CLASSIFICATION ISSUE

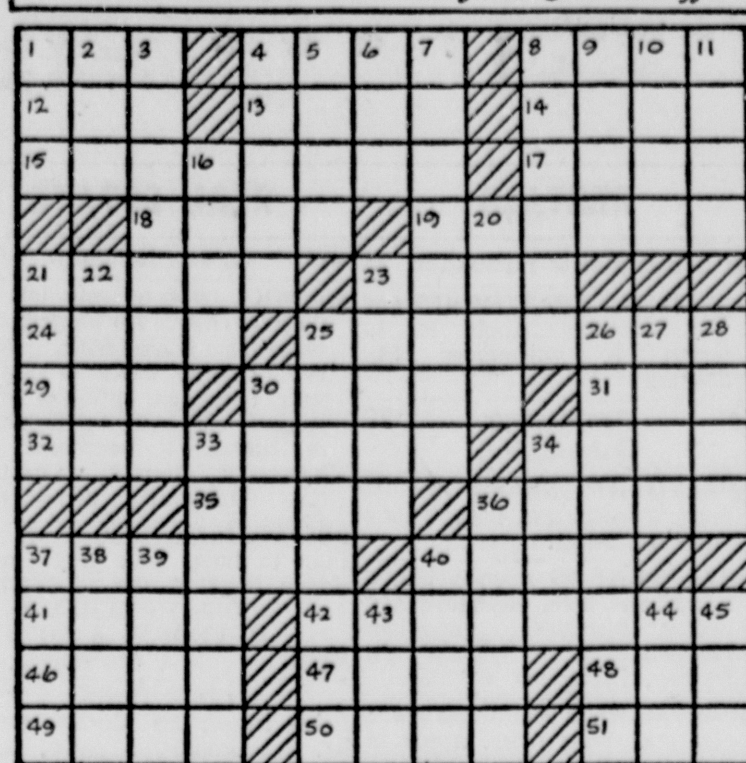

He said he generally was in favor of the Scranton administration bill which would add some 20,000 jobs to the 32,000 already covered by statutory civil service.

However, he said he thought the power of job classification should remain with the commission, not be transferred to the governor's office as provided in the bill.

The commission has requested a $125,000 appropriation from the 1963-64 general fund budget. This was the same amount it received this current fiscal year.

The money is a revolving fund which serves as operating revenue for the commission while it awaits payment from various state agencies for services rendered.

Famed Hull House In Chicago Is Being Razed

By CHARLES-GENE MCDANIEL
CHICAGO (AP) — Hull House, the fruition of a girl's dream and a world-famed monument to humanity, is being torn down in the name of progress.

The 74-year-old settlement just west of Chicago's Loop has been sold, after some dicker, to the city of Chicago for $875,000. It is to be razed to make way for a new four-year branch of the University of Illinois.

The work of Hull House will continue under a dispersed program in various areas of the city.

KNOWN AROUND WORLD

The Hull House complex of 13 buildings, covering more than a block, developed and became known the world over under the guidance of Jane Addams, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1931.

All but one of the soot-begrimed, red brick buildings in a densely populated, industrial neighborhood of many nationalities will be torn down to make way for a modern university.

The university has agreed to preserve as a memorial to Miss Addams the original Hull House, the building in which she and her friend Ellen Gates Starr founded the settlement in 1889.

Miss Addams, who died in 1935, was born in 1860 in Cedarville, in northwest Illinois. The famous settlement she founded was patterned after Toynbee Hall in London.

BORN OF COMPASSION

Hull House was born of the compassion of the child Jane Addams.

When she was six and driving with her prosperous father through a poverty-stricken area of an industrial city, she saw children playing in dirty streets and dusty yards beside shabby little houses.

She was moved to comment, "When I grow up I'm going to have a big house and I'm going to ask all those children to come over and play."

50,000 A YEAR

Twenty-three years later, after graduation from Rockford College and travel in Europe, she returned to Chicago and found that big house at 800 S. Halsted St., one that had been the mansion of Charles Hull, an early citizen of Chicago.

Not only children came to play, but adults came and found help in time of trouble, a place of recreation, beauty through art and music, and escape from grim surroundings.

Immigrants came to learn the language and ways of a new land. The hungry were fed.

During the first year Hull House was open, 50,000 persons came. The next year, 2,000 a week, then 3,000 a week.

SHE HELPED TOO

Those who lived and worked at Hull House have had no pride of class or birth but have been a part of neighborhood life. Miss Addams washed new-born babies, cared for children, nursed the sick and prepared the dead for burial.

Jane Addams, a pacifist, was an early advocate of arbitration as a means of settling differences among nations and was a founder of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. She was a friend of presidents and foreign statesmen and was decorated by foreign governments and honored by American universities.

INCREASING PROGRESS

Even before it was decided that Hull House property was needed for the new university, the trustees and staff—in Jane Addams' spirit of changing to meet changing times—were expanding the program to various parts of the city.

The settlement has been increasing its work with a growing population of the aged and in preventing delinquency among hard-to-reach youth.

EARNINGS UP

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Strawbridge & Clothier has reported net earnings for 1962 of $2,270,949, an increase of about 2 per cent over the previous year. The store, in its annual report Wednesday, said sales reached an all-time record. Per share earnings were $2.41 compared with $2.35 on earnings of $2,228,462 last year.

HOUSE VOTES EASTER GIFT; ON VACATION

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House packed up today for a 10-day vacation after voting President Kennedy a handsome Easter present in the form of a $450-million public works appropriation.

The 228-184 vote Wednesday approving the President's plea for more money to make jobs in a hurry probably was Kennedy's biggest congressional triumph of the year.

It could be a shallow one, however, for there were signs that the Senate might not go along with the House action.

The public works money was part of a $1.4-billion catch-all appropriation bill sent to the Senate by voice vote after two days of debate in which Republicans opposed the works program as a "political boondoggle" and Democrats defended it as an economic "must."

MATCHING GRANTS

The money was earmarked to continue matching grants to hard-pressed communities to construct projects that would provide jobs quickly. The program was authorized last year with a $900-million ceiling, of which $400 million was provided last year and allocated since.

The President wanted the additional $500 million now but the House Appropriations Committee turned him down flatly. The House reversed the committee action, voting $450 million in new funds. Supporting the program and the President were 208 Democrats and 20 Republicans. Voting against were 33 Democrats and 151 Republicans.

25 PICKETS ARRESTED IN BIRMINGHAM

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Integration forces and Birmingham police sparred again Wednesday before officers arrested 25 Negro pickets, led by blind entertainer Al Hibbler.

City Commissioner Eugene (Bull) Connor ordered his officers not to arrest Hibbler, however, and a squad car took him back to his motel.

It was the second day that Hibbler, a Negro, had tried unsuccessfully to be arrested. Police picked him up with several other pickets Tuesday, but released him with an apology.

NEAR INCIDENT

The first near incident in the eight-day-old desegregation drive occurred Wednesday when a white man accosted two Negroes who took seats at a downtown lunch counter.

The man, unidentified, cursed the Negroes, then took them in tow and led them across the street to a police officer. The man walked away after the policeman asked him if he were an official of the store.

After the picketing incident, Negroes renewed their hit-and-run tactics against downtown lunch counters. The counters were closed as soon as the Negroes sat down, then reopened when they left.

White persons in one store employed defensive maneuvers. They filled the lunch counter and as soon as one finished, he would motion to another white person to take his seat, thus preventing the waiting Negroes from trying to get service.

A group of Negroes entered the main city library usually reserved for white persons, picked up books and took seats at tables.

Several police officers arrived a few minutes later, but the Negroes left quietly without being asked to do so. No arrests were made.

There has been no violence since Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his Southern Christian Leadership Conference initiated the drive "to trample all racial barriers."

The island of Luzon holds both the Philippines' old capital, Manila, and the official new seat of government at nearby Quezon City.

GRAIN PLAN MAY FAIL AIM TO CUT SUPPLY

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's feed grain program for 1963 may accomplish less than its 1961 and 1962 predecessors in reducing a costly surplus of these grains.
This possibility was raised by an Agriculture Department report issued Wednesday. The government is seeking to reduce supplies by offering payments and price supports to farmers who divert a part of their feed grain land from corn, sorghum grain and barley.
The report showed that farmers had signed to divert 25.7 million acres of these grains to non-crop use this year. They would earn payments on the idled acres totaling about $940 million. Last year farmers signed to idle 29.5 million acres but actual diversion was about 10 per cent less.
By Oct. 1, reserve and surplus supplies of feed grains are expected to be down to 61 million tons, or an average reduction of 11.8 million tons a year during 1961 and 1962 marketing years.
PROSPECTS UP
But production prospects for this year were said to be almost as large as probable demands. There was said to be a possibility that the reduction in the over-supplies might be held to 2 or 3 million tons by this year's crops. This would be a much smaller reduction than Kennedy Administration farm officials have been hoping for.
The report said that with average acre yields, this year's feed grain production could reach nearly 152 million tons, 6 per cent more than last year and second only to the record output in 1960. Demands for the 1963-crop marketing year are expected to be upwards of 155 million tons.
For reducing feed grain production, farmers got $782 million in 1961 and $842 million in 1962.
Thus, it has cost the government at the rate of about $68 a ton in payments to farmers to obtain the present indicated reduction in the feed grain surplus.
The Kennedy Administration's successor to the Eisenhower Administration soil bank plan has been accepted by farmers to the full extent of federal funds provided.
The successor to the soil bank is a cropland diversion program designed to convert to other uses, such as grass, forests, recreation and other long-time non-crop uses. The soil bank plan offered payments to farmers idling cropland. The new plan emphasizes an alternative use.
More than 4,100 farmers in 41 test counties in 13 states—Pennsylvania among them—have filed applications to convert 205,000 acres of cropland to other uses. The test plan is limited to $10 million this year. Soil bank payments rain in excess of $300 million in some years.

LONGEST NAME CALLED PHONY

LLANFAIRPWLLGWYNGYLLLOGERYCHWYRNDROBWL-LLANTYSILIO G O G O C H, the Welsh National Folk Museum says the legendary name of this town — proudly claimed by generations of Welshmen as the longest place name in Britain—is a phony.
Llanfair, etc., has lived on its tourist trade. Sentimental Welshmen suggested that the railroad station, due to be closed under a railroad modernization plan, be rebuilt in the museum grounds. Curator Iorwerth Peate laughed at the idea. The station's real name, he said, is Llanfairpwll, meaning St. Mary by the Pool.
In the 19th Century, Peate explained, a local tailor added 46 letters to the name to make it St. Mary's Church in the Hollow of the White Hazel Near to the Rapid Whirlpool of Llantysilio of the Red Cave.

265 CHILDREN ESCAPE FIRE

DETROIT (AP) — Nuns and priests Wednesday calmly evacuated 265 school children shortly before a flash fire destroyed the 53-year-old Our Lady of Sorrows Roman Catholic Church and gutted an unused manufacturing plant. No injuries were reported.
The school children were attending a Holy Week Mass in the historic East Side church which serves Detroit's Belgian community.
The fire broke out in the unused former Briggs Manufacturing Co. plant at 8:15 a.m. More than 200 firemen, 30 pieces of equipment, and the entire Seventh Precinct police force rushed to the scene.
Witnesses said the blaze burned out the former Briggs plant, jumped across the street and touched off the church and church rectory.
Health Dept.
Allen Davis, proprietor of The Palms Restaurant, was severely burned about the arms and head on Thursday morning while attempting to light a grill at the restaurant. He was treated at the Warner Hospital and released.
The Auxiliary of Francis X. Elder Post 121, American Legion, met on Tuesday evening in the post home with 16 members present. President Anna Bushman read the bulletin and several thank-you notes. It was voted to donate $5 to the Crippled Children's Fund. Members reported on hours for baby-sitting, clinic work, library work, clothing donations and Easter Seal donations. Membership chairman Ann Shorb reported 76 members have paid their 1963 dues to date. Refreshment committee for May is Ann Topper and Ann Shorb. The draw prize was won by Mary Theresa Miller and Robbie Sanders' name was called for the door prize, but she was not present. The meeting adjourned and the ladies joined the men of the post for refreshments.

FIND CURE FOR KIDNEY CANCER IN CHILDREN

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer
LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — One deadly cancer in children is yielding now to a triple treatment, a famous cancer doctor reports.
An antibiotic, surgery and radiation are destroying all visible signs of this cancer, known as Wilms' tumor of the kidney, in 81 per cent of child victims, said Dr. Sidney Farber of children's hospital, Boston. One boy is alive and well six years later, other children seemingly well for two to five years thus far.
Recounting progress to an American Cancer Society seminar for science writers, Dr. Farber also announced initial success in preserving and using an element in human blood—platelets — to combat hemorrhages which are the main cause of death in children with acute leukemia or blood cancer.
He said banks of platelets may become generally available to help treat acute leukemia and acute anemia, and radiation sickness from X-ray treatment of cancer or exposure to nuclear weapons.
The apparent cure rate of the kidney cancer had recently risen to 40 per cent through surgery and radiation, Dr. Farber said. But 60 per cent of children still died, mainly because the cancer had spread to their lungs.
Now the antibiotic, Actinomycin D, has joined the battle. For the first time, all signs of a solid tumor in children are being eliminated fairly regularly.
Eighty-one per cent of youngsters receiving the combined treatment between 1957 and 1960 are alive and well.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

"How about one of those wonder drugs?"

"I've got a cold," the man said, and he went on to ask for a "wonder drug." The pharmacist sold him some aspirin and advised him to see his physician. As it happened the aspirin fixed him up fine, but the point is this: Pharmacists are not physicians. We work with doctors, providing the drugs and medicines they prescribe. We have a professional knowledge of the powerful new "wonder drugs," so we know how important it is to use them correctly. Please do not feel offended when your pharmacist refuses to sell you a certain drug. It is for your protection and in the best interest of your good health. Always see your doctor when potent medication is required.

The Order Of Events On Day That Changed History

By JULES LOH
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Except for a handful of His disciples the people of Jerusalem didn't regard the death of Jesus as an event of much importance at the time. To most it was an ignominious token of failure.

It was years later that Christian scholars found it important to study every detail of Christ's ordeal. They found some facts obscure. Did Pilate confront Christ at Fort Antonia or at Herod's palace? It could have been either; most believe it was the Roman fortress.

On most facts, however, authorities agree.

GOOD FRIDAY ORDEAL

The story of the Good Friday ordeal began a few days earlier when Jesus and His disciples left Bethany, two miles away, and entered Jerusalem triumphantly.

The next day He drove the money changers from the temple where they had gathered, against orthodox Jewish doctrine, to exchange for approved Tyrian coinage the foreign currency of Jews flocking into the city for Passover.

He spent the following days teaching in the temple, deftly avoiding the verbal traps laid for Him. It is lawful to pay tribute to Caesar? If He answered "yes" he would alienate His followers, who despised Caesar; if He answered "no" He would incur the wrath of the Roman procurator.

PASSOVER FEAST

After His final day of teaching He sent Peter and John to prepare the Passover feast in the upper room of the home of Mark's father and there, with His disciples, ate His last supper.

That night, at the garden of Gethsemane outside the city walls, He prayed. His agony, mentally and physically, had begun. Luke, a physician, later wrote that "His sweat became as clots of blood, trickling down upon the ground." Modern doctors call this haemorrhoids. It occurs in moments of the most severe mental anguish.

It was in the garden that Judas betrayed Jesus with a kiss. His captors took Him roughly through the city's Golden Gate and into the big double courtyard of the high priest, Caiaphas. (see map)

STRUCK IN FACE

As a diplomatic gesture Caiaphas sent Jesus to his father-in-law, Annas. According to law no prisoner had to undergo a preliminary examination. When Jesus asked Annas "Why do you question me?" a guard smashed Him in the face for His insolence.

Annas sent Jesus back to Caiaphas for His ecclesiastical trial before the Sanhedrin, the Jewish court of priests, elders and scribes whose jurisdiction was limited to religious crimes. It was composed of 71 members but it took only 23 to make a quorum and Caiaphas probably had no trouble obtaining enough for the assembly despite the early hour.

The charge: Blasphemy. Are you the Messiah? "I am He," replied Jesus.

TORE HIS TUNIC

Caiaphas dramatically tore his tunic the length of the palm of his hand according to prescribed practice in the presence of blasphemers. The rest of the court did not follow suit — there was nothing in the law that said a messianic claim was blasphemous. The court did, however, judge Jesus to be "worthy of death."

In the courtyard outside Peter denied he even knew the man. They took Jesus to Pilate, hoping the procurator would consider someone who claimed to be the Messiah as a threat to the peace of the domain and thus a traitor. Had the Sanhedrin's verdict been a truly judicial one, Pilate would have merely rubber-stamped it and allowed Jesus to be put to death by one of the Jewish modes, probably stoning.

CLAIMED TO BE KING

They never mentioned the charge of blasphemy to Pilate. They merely said He had claimed to be King of the Jews. Pilate told them to tend to the matter themselves.

Someone mentioned that Jesus was a Galilean. It was a political point. Galilee was a haven for Zealots — Jewish nationalists — and long a trouble spot for Rome. But Pilate saw the identification as a possible way out for him.

Herod Antipas, the puppet ruler of Galilee, had moved his household from Tiberias, capital of his tiny domain, to Jerusalem for the holiday. Since Jesus was a Galilean, Pilate would send Him to Herod.

BECAME FRIENDS

Herod appreciated the gesture; he and Pilate, once enemies, became fast friends. But Herod didn't want to alienate any followers Jesus might have in Galilee. Instead of punishing Jesus, Herod made a comic figure of Him. He put a gaudy cloak around His shoulders, a "kingly" garment, and sent him back to Pilate.

Throughout the entire ordeal before Herod, Jesus did not speak a word.

Again Pilate said he found no fault with the man. He offered to release Him to the people, a custom at Passover, but instead they cried for the release of Barabbas, a Zealot who had incited a riot and had killed a man in the melee.

"CRUCIFY HIM!" "Then what am I to do with Jesus?" asked Pilate. "Have Him crucified!" they shouted.

Pilate sent Jesus to be scourged, a punishment called the "half-

Lerner, Kennedy Attended Choate

NEW YORK (AP) — Alan Jay Lerner, Broadway lyricist, and John F. Kennedy, President of the United States, shared editorial duties on the school yearbook while attending Choate Academy, Wallingford, Conn.

A researcher turned up the item in connection with performance at the White House of "Brigadoon," which Lerner wrote with Frederick Loewe. The future songwriter was at Choate from 1933 to '36, and during his first year was an associate editor of the yearbook, "Brief." Another associate editor was Kennedy, who attended the school from 1932 to '35.

Expert Advises Dummy Cops

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Warren C. Gott, a Tulsa psychologist, has a proposal he says would reduce the accident rate on America's streets and highways.

Noting that a study he once made had shown that putting a man in a uniform similar to that of a policeman near a stop sign had brought a sharp reduction in violations there, he suggested that all official cars of city, county, state and federal government be painted the same colors as police cruisers and be equipped with red lights on top. Operators way death" by the Romans. Then someone went to one of the buckets in the courtyard containing the dry, brittle thorns the soldiers used to start fires. He wove a pileus, an oval-shaped Roman hat, and jammed it on the head of Jesus. A crossbeam was placed on His shoulders, but He was too weak to carry it without help the 3,000 feet to Calvary where the upright portion of the cross starkly awaited Him.

Three hours later Jesus' tortured body sagged and a final cry issued from His lips. "It is finished."

SENATE OKAYS JFK'S YOUTH WORK PLANS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has approved President Kennedy's program to put thousands of American youths to work on conservation and community projects.

But before the youngsters can be sent into parks and forests and into local hospitals and libraries, the House will have to give its approval. And this administration lieutenant's concede, is no sure thing.

Kennedy men in the Senate had promised to pass the youth employment bill before Easter. They made good Wednesday night, but it took a 12-hour session, longest of the year, before the 50-34 vote was rolled up.

STIFF FIGHT AHEAD

Although the House Labor Committee has approved a bill close to the Senate version, House Republicans promise a stiff fight and Democratic leaders say they do not know if the bill will be passed.

It won't be called up for debate until the holiday recess ends April 22 and floor consideration is unlikely before May, said administration leaders in the House. The legislation deals with two programs which, proponents say, will eventually provide up to 100,000 jobs a year to those in the 16-21 age bracket.

One would send youths into camps in a federal conservation corps patterned after the old CCC of the 1930s. The other would establish a state and community force to work on local public service projects.

Of these cars wouldn't have any police authority, he said, but work through the power of suggestion to, "in effect, increase your police force by that many cars."

LABOR PARTY PICKS WOMAN FOR ELECTION

LONDON (AP)—Britain's Labor Party has singled out a gentle grandmotherly-looking woman for the tough task of tuning up the party machine for the next national election.

Gray-haired, bespectacled Sara E. Barker, 58, may look soft — but she's not. A colleague calls her "almost frightfully efficient."

Because of this, the party's national executive committee elected her its national agent, a post second only to general secretary in the party organization. Miss Barker was named shortly after she played a major role in beating labor's vote in a by-election in North Derby.

ELECTIONS NEXT YEAR?

She is the first woman to hold such an important post in a major political party in Britain. Much of her task will be to improve the party machinery with a goal of returning the Laborites to power after a losing decade.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservative government must call national elections by 1964. Many believe that Macmillan, a politically canny Scot, won't wait that long and will call the elections next year. This would be just after Britain's expected entry into the European Common Market and, the Conservatives hope, at a time when their fortunes are at a high point.

If such is the case, it would give Miss Barker a little over a year to overhaul the electoral machinery of the Labor Party, out of power since the Conservative victory of October 25, 1951.

DOESN'T MAKE POLICY

Miss Barker is the Labor Party's sixth national agent. For a year before she was named to the post, she held the dual jobs of assistant national agent and chief women's officer.

Miss Barker's new post is not one of policy-making, but it will permit her to move in many ways to support her political ideas and methods. This, in itself, means wide political strength.

Her job carries an annual salary of 2,000 pounds ($5,600).

She has been dealing out efficient methods in labor politics since she was 16. That's when she joined the Independent Labor Party, a radical offshoot of the Labor Party to which she shifted three years later.

She has been a member of the Clerical and Administrative Workers' Union for 30 years and of the union for Labor Party Agents for 27 years.

She was born in Halifax, a city in the Yorkshire industrial belt.

Gloria Swanson To Join Road Show

NEW YORK (AP) — Gloria Swanson is to make a tour next season in "Just for Tonight," a play by Harold J. Kennedy. The production is being organized by Willard Swire, former executive director of the American National Theater and Academy.

In addition, Swire is planning several projects in London in collaboration with Peter Cotes. Among them are "A Far Country," "Ask My Wife" and "Peacock Seasons."

NEW YORK (AP) — Howard Erskine is a producer who doesn't mind being an actor at the same time.

The cosponsor of "Calculated Risk," Erskine joined the suspense play's cast as a replacement for Ben Hayes. The switch enabled Hayes to accept an invitation to join the Tyrone Guthrie repertory company in Minneapolis.

The assignment was Erskine's first stage workout since 1952. In the interval, he has taken part in the management end of four shows.

Crippled Auto Still On Road

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The car 19-year-old John George Christenson was driving left something — many things — to be desired.

Patrolman Jim Bordner spotted Christenson driving along 34th Avenue with the door of the car open. As the car crossed 28th street, the trunk lid flew open, pulling along side, Bordner heard that the car had no muffler.

He stopped Christenson and examined the car. Bordner said the brakes didn't work. They stuck to the floor and had to be pulled up with a piece of rope tied to the pedal.

He gave Christenson a ticket for operating a vehicle with defective equipment, and then called a wrecker to tow the car away.

YOUNG DANCER TEACHES TOTS

By IRA DRYSDALE

HALIFAX (AP)—Roberta Mills is a slight brunette ballet dancer just out of high school who likes jiving, jazz and the twist.

She's 18 and already has her own business—teaching ballet to 150 children in the Halifax-Dartmouth area. It's a six-day-a-week job but still leaves her time to take a few courses at Dalhousie University.

Born in Montreal, Roberta started dancing when she was four. She explained that her mother sent her to dancing school then because she was born in December. She was a little too young to start grade school with her playmates and her mother decided to give her dancing lessons "for something to do."

She has studied ballet in Montreal, Toronto, New York and Halifax, where she is still taking instruction.

The five-foot-three, 110-pound dancer disagrees with those who think it's bad to start ballet young. If it is properly taught, four or five years old is not too young, she says.

"It helps posture, provides grace . . . and can take off inches." If improperly taught, however, it could do serious harm, causing muscular and bone damage.

"Ballet is the most important thing for me," Roberta says, "but I don't eat, drink and sleep ballet. I go to dances and twist and jive, and enjoy it just as much as any other teen-ager."

However, she regards these dances as "passing fancies" and feels that two or three twists an evening are plenty.

Bobby, as her friends call her, says that dancing is more demanding than most office jobs available to a girl her age. You've got to give everything you have. It takes a lot of planning and worrying . . . you've got to be dedicated or not a success at all."

Business has been good but while she makes enough to pay her mother board, buy her clothes and neatly cover expenses, she's got to be careful not to throw her profits away.

Interest in ballet has been on the rise here and she hopes that with the opening of a repertory theater there may be more chances for her and her pupils to perform publicly.

Pitcher Requests "Lucky No. 13"

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Pitcher Bill Faul asked for No. 13 and the Detroit Tigers obliged. In high school and at the University of Cincinnati, Faul also wore uniform No. 13.

In the last three years the Tigers have had three players wear No. 1. This year it's third baseman Bubba Phillips, obtained from Cleveland for pitchers Ron Nischwitz and Gordon Seyfried. Last year Steve Boros, now a Cub, had No. 1 and the year before that it was Eddie Yost, now a coach with the Washington Senators.

SELLS CASTLE HUSBY BUILT

WINNIPEG (AP) — Want a six-room stone castle in the seclusion of a rural back road, with interior decoration by an accomplished artist and the comfort of oil heat?

Mrs. William Stark may have what you're looking for. And the price is under $10,000, including 320 acres of land.

She can vouch for the workmanship. Her late husband built it painstakingly, stone by stone. Her artist brother did the interior decoration and dozens of his paintings hang on the walls.

The 1½-story castle complete with turret is a striking sight to motorists near this community in the cattle and grain-growing country east of Lake Manitoba and 120 miles northwest of Winnipeg.

Mr. Stark, a sprightly 71, has lived there alone since her husband's death more than a year ago. She put the house on the market after deciding to move to Ontario and live with a sister.

FINISHED IN 1944

It was a reluctant move. Mrs. Stark watched every step of its construction after moving to Ashern as the bride of a Scottish immigrant homesteader in 1930.

Construction, with native granite from the Starks' land and surrounding countryside, began a few years after that and the final stone was set in place in 1944.

A plaque on one wall identifies the castle as "Glencorra, built in spare time by W. Stark, stonemason and farmer, homesteaded 1911."

"He did it when he could, whenever he could get the time. We had a herd of cattle—he milked some and I milked the rest. Those were the hard days when we got $15 for a cow and $5 for a calf."

"There was a log house originally but my husband dismantled it piece by piece and replaced it with stone."

Window ledges are colored with paint applied with a turkey feather, so skillfully finished they are almost impossible to distinguish from pink marble. The living room is beamed and paneled with hand-pointed trim in baronial style.

This is the work of Mrs. Stark's brother, the late Brodie Crawford, an artist who specialized in church decorations. Among his most noted works are a series of handpainted symbolic shields in St. Paul's Anglican cathedral in London, Ont.

JURY TRIAL UP TO COURT

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court has been asked to decide if Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi is entitled to trial by jury in the criminal contempt proceedings stemming from his efforts to block the enrollment of a Negro at the University of Mississippi.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals deadlocked 4-4 over the issue Tuesday and asked the Supreme Court to decide if the 64-year-old governor could be tried by jury as he had asked.

"It is much less important, in the judicial scheme of things, that Gov. Barnett should escape being fined or jailed for his publicly demonstrated contempt of a valid order of this court than that he should be denied the jury trial which he has demanded," wrote

WATER BOY

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP) — Bob Miloslavich, 46, seemed destined for the water business.

As a lad he was a cotton company's water boy and in World War II he was in charge of his ship's drinking water.

Later he bought a water bottling company, then landed a big contract for 65,000 five-gallon bottles a year.

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 27-year-old Japanese Christian who wants to teach is studying Hebrew, Aramaic, Syriac and Ugarian, as well as Bible history, at Hebrew Union College.

Kuichiro Ishikawa, who thinks he may someday teach Bible courses and possibly languages, says: "I like Hebrew . . . and little is known of Judaism in Ja-

Teen-age Drinking Serious, Pastor Says

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Calling for more public attention to the growing seriousness of teen-age drinking, the Rev. Stanley C. Brown, a Methodist minister, cited these results of a survey among 156 Phoenix High School students.

One hundred and four said they drink occasionally; 19 drink often; 53 said they purchase liquor at package stores or grocery stores; 51 order and drink in taverns; 112 attend "beer busts" or teen-age drinking parties; 70 said they have observed immoral activity among drinking friends; 54 admitted driving a car after drinking.

To understand the Old Testament, you must know about the Jewish tradition."

PLAN SORORITY SESSION HERE

Gamma Beta chapter of Gamma Phi Beta will host the biennial Province II conference to be held on the Gettysburg College campus on April 19-21. Approximately 100 delegates from Province II chapters, which includes Alpha Pi of West Virginia University, Alpha Upsilon of Penn State University, Alpha Chi of the College of William and Mary, Beta Beta of the University of Maryland, and Gamma Beta of Gettysburg College, will attend the conference.

Official delegates representing Gamma Beta chapter at the conference will be the president, Elizabeth Brennecke, and the pledge trainer, Lynde Engel, but all Gamma Beta members will attend the discussions and luncheons during the event. A general business meeting Saturday morning, April 20, will initiate the conference and discussion groups concerning common chapter problems will follow. A breakfast for all delegates will be held in the Gamma Phi sorority room before the Saturday morning sessions.

A breakfast for conference and Pan-Hellenic delegates will be held at the Lamp Post Tea Room Sunday morning.

END LECTURES AT ST. JOSEPH

Dr. Viktor Antolin addressed a group of students of St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, Tuesday, on "International Relations and Social Problems." This was the last in a series of lectures which Dr. Antolin has been giving to the young sisters and postulants. Previous lectures were on the natural law and social order, the Catholic church and social order and the principles of private property and socialization.

Sister Rosemary, president of St. Joseph College, arranged the series to promote understanding of the social doctrine of the Catholic Church as explained in the encyclical of Pope John XXIII, "Mater et Magistra." Participants in the program grew in understanding of such important concepts as: The norms of natural law as the basis of social order; the natural obligation of all men to work for the common good; the greater obligation of Catholics as members of the mystical body of Christ to contribute to the common good.

Dr. Antolin is assistant professor of philosophy at St. Joseph College. He pursued his studies at the Gregorian Institute in Rome and at the State University of Italy. He received a Master of Arts degree in Philosophy at the University of Toronto and his doctorate from the Central University of Madrid. Dr. Antolin also earned a diploma in social studies from the Social Institute of Leo XIII in Madrid, Spain.

UNITED PLANS BIG EXPANSION

A budget calling for the expenditure of over four and a half million dollars this year for plant additions has been announced by President B. M. Witmer of the United Telephone Company.

"Continuing development and enlargement of industry in our operating area has been a prime factor in establishing the size of our budget," Witmer said. "Each new or expanded business dictates the need for additional communication service, and we're in business to furnish the services required," he added.

Approximately $208,000 will be spent in Adams County and part of Hanover. The expenditures will include cable relief jobs, an addition to the local business office, carrier toll relief to Hanover which will provide more long distance channels. Work will continue on the program throughout the remainder of the year, it was announced.

DA Gives Approval To JP Procedure

No wrong procedure was used by a county judge of the peace in connection with a larceny charge brought against Richard Claire Laughman, 19 Breckenridge St., District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter reported to court this morning.

On Monday Laughman, when he appeared before the court for sentencing on a charge of impersonating an officer, reported he had been arrested and paid fines and costs of $47.45 in a "settlement" of a recent larceny charge before the justice. Because the testimony of Laughman showed that a procedure which is used in some other counties, but not in Adams, might have been used the district attorney was asked to investigate and if need be instruct the justice on the procedure used here.

Attorney Teeter said his investigation showed no wrong procedure was used. Laughman, he said, had been accused of taking a $20 bill, a miniature camera and an electric heating pad. He then returned the articles and when it was discovered the cord had been cut on the heating pad paid its owner $7 to cover the damages. The charges before the justice were then dropped on payment of costs, a procedure allowable in matters involving larceny of less than $200.

ROME (AP)—More than half of Italy's 83,000 doctors began charging patients directly today rather than waiting for medical insurance agencies to reimburse them.

Other doctors will follow suit April 16. The doctors are protesting time-consuming paperwork connected with payment through the plans. They also want more pay.

How To Use Water To END YOUR CONSTIPATION WORRIES

Here's how to get to the root of your constipation problem. Bring enough moisture to your lower colon every day. When food wastes are normally moistened, they will "move" as they should.

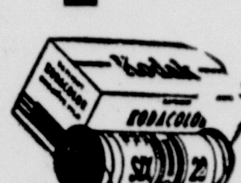

So do this. Take SERUTIN every day with plenty of water. SERUTIN is a gentle laxative aid that carries and holds water in your lower digestive tract to promote more normal regularity.

SERUTIN provides the proper moisture, bulk and peristaltic action to help keep you regular. This is utterly different from harsh chemical laxatives which may dry you out.

Get SERUTIN. Take as directed and enjoy daily regularity or money back from the maker.

Cooking Is Fun

By Cecily Brownstone

FAMILY DINNER
While fresh cranberries are in season, try combining them with a canned fruit — a pleasant way of varying the traditional sauce. Smoked Boneless Pork Shoulder Butt

Cranberry Peach Sauce
Potato Puff Spinach
Cookie Bars Beverage
CRANBERRY PEACH SAUCE
1 can (29 ounces) sliced cling peaches
¾ cup sugar
2 cups cranberries (picked over and rinsed)

Drain peaches; measure 1 cup of the syrup into a large saucepan; add sugar. Stir constantly over low heat until sugar dissolves; bring to a boil. Add cranberries and the drained peaches. Cover and boil until all the cranberries pop, five minutes or so. Cool. Cover and store in refrigerator. Makes about 1 quart. The peaches take on some of the cranberry color.

NOTE: The small amount of syrup left from the peaches will be just enough to sweeten the sections from 2 grapefruit.

WEIGHT WATCHERS LUNCH
Friends who count calories may appreciate this menu.
Tomato Aspic and Cottage Cheese Salad
Melba Toast
Fruit Compote Beverage

TOMATO ASPIC AND COTTAGE CHEESE SALAD
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
2 cups tomato juice
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 cup (8 ounces) cream-style cottage cheese
Salad greens

Sprinkle gelatin over 1 cup of the tomato juice in a saucepan. Stir constantly over very low heat until gelatin dissolves and mixture is very hot, do not boil. Remove from heat. At once add the remaining 1 cup cold or room-temperature tomato juice, salt, celery seed and Worcestershire stir to blend. Turn into individual molds and chill until set. Turn out of molds and serve with cottage cheese and salad greens. Makes 4 servings.

GOOD SUPPER
These brown-speckled beans turn a uniform pinkish-red after cooking.
Fish Chowder Pilot Crackers
Island Beans with Rice
Salad Bowl
Fruit and Cheese Beverage

ISLAND BEANS
1 package (1 pound) pinto beans (2 to 2½ cups)
Water
1 bay leaf
1 hambone

½ cup olive oil
2 medium onions (peeled and chopped)
1 large green pepper (chopped)
2 cloves garlic (minced)
Salt and freshly ground pepper
Rinse beans, add 6 cups water and soak overnight. Drain and turn into a kettle with 6 cups fresh water, the bay leaf and hambone. Bring to a boil; cover and simmer, adding water as necessary to keep beans well covered, until tender — about 2 hours. Remove bay leaf and hambone. Dice any meat on hambone and return meat to beans. Drain beans; use liquid in a soup. Cook onions, green pepper and garlic in hot olive oil in a skillet until onions are yellowed; add to beans with salt and pepper to taste. Reheat over boiling water. Serve over steamed rice with a topping of minced mild sweet onion. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

FRIDAY FARE
Some good cooks like to add caraway seed when they are cooking fresh shrimp.
Tomato Bouillon Bread Tray
Caraway Shrimp with Tartar Sauce and Salad Greens
Bread Tray
German Apple Pancake Beverage
CARAWAY SHRIMP
1½ pounds shrimp (any size)
2 cups water
1 teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons caraway seed
Rinse shrimp; turn into a saucepan with water, salt and caraway seed. Bring to a boil; boil gently just until shrimp shells turn pink — this will take only a few minutes. Drain shrimp, shuck and remove black veins. Serve with tartar sauce and salad greens. Store shrimp in a covered container in refrigerator until ready to use — the same day they are cooked or next day. Makes 4 servings.

SATURDAY BUFFET
Our new version of a winter fruit sauce that we enjoy serving in a variety of ways.
Stuffed Cabbage Rolls
French Bread
Snap Beans with Mushrooms
Angel Food Cake with Vanilla Ice Cream and Cherryberry Sauce
CHERRYBERRY SAUCE
1 can (1 pound) dark sweet cherries
1 package (1 pound) whole frozen strawberries
1 tablespoon cornstarch
Salt
½ cup light corn syrup
Drain cherries and pit reserve cherry juice for some other use. Thaw strawberries and drain; measure ¾ cup of the strawberry juice — and if there isn't this amount, make it up with the cherry juice. In a saucepan stir together the cornstarch and the strawberry juice, adding the juice in small amounts to keep smooth; add a pinch of salt. Cook and stir constantly until slightly thickened and clear. Add drained strawberries and cherries at once or add after cooling syrup. Store covered in refrigerator until ready to use. Makes 8 to 12 servings.

SUNDAY DINNER
Roast Beef Oven Potatoes
Snap Beans Bread Tray
Molded Green Cabbage Relish
Mincemeat Tortie Beverage
MOLDED GREEN CABBAGE RELISH
1 package (3 ounces) lemon-lime flavored gelatin
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup boiling water
¾ cup cold water
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons minced onion
2 tablespoons minced parsley
1½ cups finely chopped green cabbage
½ teaspoon white pepper
1 teaspoon dried crushed salad herbs
Salad greens
Stir together the gelatin, salt and boiling water until gelatin dissolves. Stir in cold water and lemon juice. Add remaining ingredients; mix well. Chill until slightly thickened. Spoon into 6 individual ½-cup molds. Chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with salad greens. Makes 6 servings.

FRIDAY FARE
Want to ring a change in the way you prepare fish fillets? This recipe may appeal to you.
French Flounder Potatoes
Snap Beans Stewed Tomatoes
Bread Tray
Frosted Layer Cake Beverage
FRENCH FLOUNDER
1½ pounds flounder (or similar thin fish) fillets
¼ cup flour
¼ cup minced blanched almonds
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon white pepper
½ teaspoon paprika
Clarified butter or other fat for frying
Wash and drain fillets but do not dry. Mix together the flour, almonds, salt pepper and paprika; coat fillets with mixture. Fry fillets, one layer at a time, without crowding in hot butter, turning to have both sides golden brown; add butter as needed. Makes 4 servings.

SATURDAY LUNCH
If eggs aren't on the breakfast menu, it's a nutritious idea to feature them for lunch!
Canadian Creamed Eggs
Buttered Toast Spinach
Fruit Gelatin Beverage
CANADIAN CREAMED EGGS
6 eggs
2 cups well-seasoned hot medium white sauce
2 tablespoons drained capers
Pimento strips or paprika
Hard-cook eggs; shell; slice crosswise using an egg slicer if you have one. Add sliced eggs to hot white sauce with capers; reheat. Serve over crisp buttered toast and garnish with pimento or sprinkle with paprika. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPER
A friend of ours often makes this dish for her family when the ingredients are at hand.
Tuna Roll Parsley Sauce
Buttered Broccoli Carrot Sticks
Fruit and Cookies Beverage
TUNA ROLL
2 cups biscuit mix
2 cup (about) milk
2 cans (6½ ounces each) tuna
1 medium onion (finely chopped)

1-3 to ½ cup finely diced celery
1 egg (slightly beaten)
Stir together biscuit mix and milk to make a soft dough; turn out on a pastry cloth; turn over and knead half a dozen times. Roll out into a 14 by 9 inch rectangle. Drain tuna and mix with onion, celery and egg; taste and add salt and pepper if needed. Spread tuna mixture over biscuit dough. Roll up jelly-roll fashion; seal ends; slash at 5 even intervals. Place on a well-greased cookie sheet or jelly roll pan, edge down. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 25 to 30 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 6 servings.

TUNA SLAW SANDWICHES
1 can (6½ or 7 ounces) tuna fish
½ to 1 cup shredded and chopped green cabbage
Mayonnaise, Lemon juice and yellow prepared mustard.
Turn the tuna into a bowl without draining; flake and mix with cabbage. Mix mayonnaise with lemon juice and mustard to taste; mix with tuna and cabbage, adding salt and pepper to taste. Use as a spread for sandwiches.

AFTERNOON TEA
This recipe makes a large cake so there'll be plenty for company and the family.
Assorted Sandwiches Salted Nuts
Chocolate Banana Chiffon Cake
Tea with Lemon, Cream or Milk

CHOCOLATE BANANA CHIFFON CAKE
2¼ cups sifted cake flour
1½ cups sugar
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup corn oil
6 eggs (separated)
1 cup mashed ripe banana (2 to 3 bananas)
1 square (1 ounce) unsweetened chocolate (coarsely grated)
½ teaspoon cream of tartar
Sift together the cake, flour, sugar, baking powder and salt into a mixing bowl. Make well in center and add oil, egg yolks, banana and chocolate in order given; beat with spoon until smooth. Beat cream of tartar with egg whites until mixture forms very stiff straight peaks. Gently fold banana mixture into whites, blending well do not stir. Turn into an ungreased 10 by 4 inch tube pan. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven until cake springs back when lightly touched with finger — 1 hour and 10 to 15 minutes. At once invert pan over funnel or bottle to cool. Remove cold cake with pan by loosening sides with spatula. Cake may be baked in a 13 by 9½ by 2 inch cake pan in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 40 to 45 minutes.

LEMON BUTTER
2 large eggs
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons butter (soft)
2 tablespoons grated lemon rind
¼ cup lemon juice
In top of double boiler beat eggs just enough to combine yolks and whites. Add sugar, butter, lemon rind and lemon juice. Cook and stir constantly over boiling water until thickened — 8 to 10 minutes usually if water in lower part just touches base of upper part of double boiler. Remove from heat; cool. Store in a tightly covered container in refrigerator. Delightful as a spread for toast. Makes about 1¼ cups.

TRAINED GUN HANDLERS
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Another 25,000 California youngsters were taught the fundamentals of safe gun handling in 1962, the state Department of Fish and Game reported.
That brought the total trained to 245,149 youths since the program started in 1954.
All under 15 must take the course before they can apply for their first California hunting license.

Soviet Troops In Cuba Put Castro On Tightrope

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—It is almost two years since the United States got mixed up in one of the worst farces in its history. If it hadn't been planned for his benefit, it couldn't have helped Fidel Castro more.

He looked like a soft touch but wasn't. Now, since the Soviets moved in to protect him, he looks untouchable. The United States, which sought to destroy him, now tiptoes around him.

1961 INVASION

About 1,500 Cuban refugees, with American backing, invaded their homeland April 17, 1961, to get rid of Castro. He smashed them, jailed about 1,200, and finally released them last year for a handsome ransom.

From all of this it might seem he could consider himself safe now. He probably doesn't.

There is a bit of the Caribbean witchdoctor about him. All who touch him get hit with a curse, friend or foe. Both the United States and Russia suffered humiliation from getting tangled with him.

The events flowing from that disastrous act of invasion took strange turns.

This country — but principally President Kennedy, who took responsibility for the invasion—has been rendered self-conscious not only by the invasion failure but the dismal nature of it.

SHOCKED WORLD

It shocked some people around the world to see the United States take part, even though in the background, in an attack on a neighbor. Some were shocked because it failed, others because it was handled so wretchedly.

Russia suffered an embarrassment from which it probably has not yet recovered when, after sliding missiles into Cuba, it crawled out of a showdown with Kennedy by pulling its missiles out.

But Russia wasn't all loser. It shoved about 22,000 Soviet troops into Cuba with the missiles and perhaps 14,000 are still there. Since any attack on Cuba now would involve them, and Russia, their presence discourages invasion.

In this sense they're a blessing for Castro. He may feel the blessing is mixed. He can't help feeling that if he ever stops toeing the Russian line, the Russians in Cuba will dispose of him.

SOVIET REASONS

There is the possibility that Russia had two reasons, not connected with any real threat to the United States, for putting the missiles in Cuba:

1. It was a good excuse to put troops in, too, while they're a discouragement to any kind of American invasion they are also a control on Castro.

2. Strictly for bargaining: to agree to pull its missiles out of Cuba if this country agreed to do the same with its missiles in Turkey and Italy.

The Kennedy administration denies any such deal, or any deal, was made.

Nevertheless, not long after the Russian missiles were hauled away from Cuba, this government announced it was pulling its missiles out of Italy and Turkey.

The reason given was that they are no longer needed now that Polaris submarines moving around under the Mediterranean with their missiles are better bases than the stationary ones in Italy and Turkey.

Out of all this one thing is sure: the United States is a lot further from getting Castro out of Cuba than it was before the invasion began. There is no evidence this country now has any plans for getting rid of Castro.

And the American government, which backed the refugees two years ago has come so cautious about getting into trouble with the Russians in Cuba that it has cracked down on refugees in this country to make sure they don't try any anti-Castro capers from American territory.

WINTER'S GRIP HARD TO SHAKE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wintry weather clung Wednesday to the upper Great Lakes region where thick ice is hampering ice breaking operations to open the spring shipping season.

Ice up to 3½ feet thick and piled to a height of 15 feet in places has virtually halted ice breaking in the upper St. Mary's River at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

The icebreaker Alexander Henry has made little headway in efforts to move into Lake Superior through the upper St. Mary's River. The U.S. Coast Guard cutter Nagatuck was working the lower river and a second cutter, the Tamarack, has begun preparing the Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. harbor for the shipping season.

The first vessel is expected at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., late this month.

Jerry Duerden, 36-year-old London tavernkeeper, has taken out a policy insuring his nine-inch moustache against theft and fire. He went to sleep with a lighted cigarette in his mouth and woke up with the foliage afire. Now he stands to collect 100 pounds — $200 — if he loses the moustache through theft or fire.

YOUTH JOB BILL LAST LECTURE GIVEN TUESDAY

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's youth employment bill faces stiff and possibly prolonged Republican opposition in the Senate today but Democrats claimed the votes to pass it if they can get to a final roll call.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield called his colleagues in two hours early and promised a night session if necessary to get action. Mansfield said he was determined to pass the high-priority administration measure before an unofficial Easter recess begins tonight.

PROUTY OPPOSES

However, Sen. Winston L. Prouty, R-Vt., quarterbacking the Republican opposition to the legislation, declared he would have a lot to say about the bill and that his GOP colleagues would propose numerous amendments.

Prouty declined Mansfield's bid to put into effect a debate limitation agreement—the usual way to speed floor action. This requires unanimous consent.

Kennedy proposed the bill when Congress met in January as a partial solution to one of the nation's severe problems—the high rate of unemployment among youths in the 16-21 age bracket. About 700,000 of these were out of school and out of work last year.

TWO PROGRAMS

The measure would operate through two programs—a federal youth conservation corps and a hometown public service corps.

The bill survived the first Republican move Tuesday, an attempt by Prouty to shunt it to the interior committee for as much as three weeks.

This was beaten 58 to 29 but it did not necessarily indicate eventual passage. Several Southern Democrats who voted against the move said they still would oppose the measure.

Then, apparently hoping to pick up a few votes, Sens. William Proxmire, D-Wis., and Stuart Symington, D-Mo., proposed a $20-million cut in the first-year authorization of $120 million. This easily carried 65-21.

The administration had announced that, in any event, it planned to ask only for $100 million for the initial year of the program.

Jesus Met Executioners In Garden Near Cedron

When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples.

Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with him.

As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus and bound him.

And led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

But Peter stood at the door with-out. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the pass-over.

Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

A Lovelier You

MOMENT OF TRUTH. If you happen to have a new costume that appears smarter on the hanger than it does on you, look first to your figure for the reason. Brand new fashions and the same "old" figure have a way of not hanging together.

The current bywords of fashion are softness and slender shaping. Silhouettes are all movement and grace. To sustain the effect, a wearer's figure must be equally smooth and supple.

Should your figure be fresh out of those qualities, the quickest way to acquire them is with girdles and bras specifically designed to create a willowy, unbroke contour. Even those sylph-like fashion models find such underpinnings a necessary adjunct to a parade of fashions. A report on the details to look for follows:

• In Brassieres—High, understated shaping; softness in construction and fabric; contouring of downy fiberfill; longlines with mobile elastic-mesh midriff control; bandeaux built for suppleness on spandex frames.

• In Girdles—Long-long lengths and high, curving waistbands; lightweight to heavier denier spandex, for the control of light to heavy figures without constriction; corselettes, incorporating all the above-named features.

MIAMI (AP) — Ray Scarborough, a scout and pitching instructor for the Baltimore Orioles, says young pitchers can learn a lot about their craft by listening to and watching the hitters.

"The good hitters are studying the pitchers all the time," says you've gotten them out. They're looking for tips on what you're liable to throw them the next time around."

Pitchers should do the same thing with hitters, thinks Scarborough, a onetime curveball specialist for the Washington Senators, Boston Red Sox, Chicago White Sox, New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers.

"Listen and look around the batting cage during practice," he recommends. "They may indicate by some action or habit the pitch they like the most or the

WONDERFUL MORAI E

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A Memphis woman, after a hard day's work, confided to a friend that she was plumb worn out.

"Well, you don't look it," defended the friend staunchly. "You look real extinguished."

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Terrorists splashed a warehouse with chemicals Tuesday and set it on fire, destroying about $100,000 worth of merchandise.

The violence was blamed on the Armed Forces of National Liberation (FALN), a pro-Castro group.

DAKAR, Senegal (AP) — President Leopold Senghor wants the United Nations Security Council to look into his charge that four Portuguese planes bombed Bormack, a village near this African nation's border with Portuguese Guinea.

MANILA (AP) — Prospects were called good today for a meeting of foreign ministers from Malaya, Indonesia and the Philippines to ease tensions over the proposed federation of Malaysia.

pitch that might give them trouble."

Pancho Herrera Is 20 Pounds Lighter

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP) — Francisco (Pancho) Herrera, a first baseman who hit 32 home runs for Buffalo to lead the International League last season, has a chance to make the Pittsburgh Pirates because he has knocked off "about 20 pounds."

"I wrote him during the winter," says Pirate General Manager Joe L. Brown, "and told him that if he reported one ounce over 210 he would wind up back in Miami where he lives. He reported at 204 pounds." Brown says Herrera reported to the Phils two years ago at 210 pounds, went to 220 a year later and reported to Clearwater at 230 pounds last spring. Herrera currently is being carried on the Columbus, Ohio roster. He was obtained from the Phils last winter with outfielder Ted Savage for third baseman Don Hoak.
